The terms of a Participant's appointment are considered to be educational in nature. In recognition of the statutory intent set forth in 35 U.S.C. §212, neither ORAU nor the Federal Government assert any rights to inventions made by the Participant during said Participant's appointment and ownership of inventions initially resides with the Participant.

If, as a Participant under the ORISE program, you do not intend to pursue patent protection privately and desire to become eligible to share royalties from the Government's licensing of your invention pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §3710c and Army policy, please complete and sign the bottom portion of this form.
