RE: Estate of your late husband, Dietman Neumann
O/F: 15D13340287

Madam:

Following our meeting of October 7 2015, by these presents, I wish to confirm the following:

1. The last will of your husband signed before me on March 19, 2014, is confirmed as his last will and testament by searches made at the Board of Notaries and the Bar Association.
2. SECTION III of the last will and testament of your husband reads as follows:
"SECTION III I give and bequeath all my property moveable and immoveable, including the proceeds of insurance policies on my life for which no beneficiary has been designated, unto my spouse, CHRISTINA MARIA MOOSMULLER, hereby instituting her my sole universal legatee."
3. SECTION V, 1st paragraph reads as follows: "To execute this my Will, I name and appoint my spouse, CHRISTINA MARIA MOOSMULLER, as my Liquidator."

Therefore, you are the sole liquidator or executrix and sole heir of the estate.

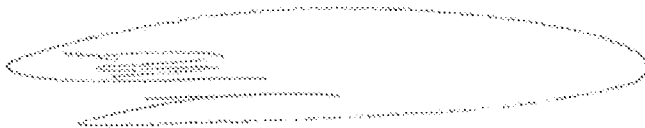

As such, all assets of the estate, including particularly your residence and all shares of the company, become your entire property, as you were already owner of one half of all said assets.

For fiscal purposes, this constitutes the most advantageous situation giving you, as spouse, the opportunity to postpone the payment of any taxes owing upon death, particularly on any capital gains.

As you may know, the homestead is free of any tax on capital gain.

Yours very truly,
