Inventions related to a 'Sensor for Dermatology & Cosmetics' Assignment

This assignment is made the 23rd day of February 2009 between Prof. Igor V Shvets, an Irish citizen of 250 Delwood Road, Castleknock, Dublin 15 and of the School of Physics, Trinity College Dublin, (called in the remainder of this document the Inventor) and the Provost Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin (called in the remainder of this document Trinity College).

WHEREAS the Inventor claims to be a true and first Inventor jointly with Guido Mariotto and Roman Kantor both of the School of Physics of an invention relating to a Sensor for Dermatology & Cosmetics, which invention was made in the course of the Inventor's work in a collaborative research programme in Trinity College;

AND WHEREAS the inventors, Igor Shvets, Guido Mariotto and Roman Kantor have agreed that the invention and all patent rights therein shall be held by Trinity College, this assignment witnesseth that in consideration of €5, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and in consideration of a share in all the royalties which accrue net of legal costs to Trinity College from the invention, following payment of the agreed share to any contracted third parties (such royalties being apportioned between Trinity College and the 3 inventors according to the present Intellectual Property Regulations of Trinity College, and of which a copy has been received by the Inventor and is hereby acknowledged) and of the inventors' share of the royalties it is hereby agreed that each of the inventors will receive an equal portion;

1. The Inventor hereby assigns to Trinity College all his share and interest in the invention, any improvements or modifications to the invention and any know-how relating to it, together with all the rights and interest in the same and all rights and powers to make application for patents in its own name, or jointly with others or in the joint names of Guido Mariotto and Roman Kantor and Trinity College or in the name of their nominee in the Republic of Ireland or in any other country of the world in respect of the invention or improvements in or modifications thereof, together with all rights and benefits arising therefrom under the International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property. The Inventor agrees that Trinity College may assign or licence the rights to any third parties of its choice for the purpose of commercialisation of the invention.
2. The Inventor hereby covenants with Trinity College that
  - (i) he will (so far as is necessary) permit and enable Trinity College Dublin to apply for and take all reasonable steps to assist Trinity College or its nominees or Licensees in obtaining the grant of patent or like protection jointly with him and Guido Mariotto and Roman Kantor in respect of the invention assigned in this document, in any territory as may be required by Trinity College Dublin and
  - (ii) he will execute and do all documents and things as may be necessary for the purpose of paragraph 2(i) and to vest his share in any relevant inventions and application for patent or know-how in Trinity College or its nominee or its assigns absolutely.
3. The Inventor hereby appoints Trinity College as his attorney in his name to execute and do any document act or thing which may be necessary to the grant of patent or like protection in its own name, jointly with others, or in its assigns' names to comply with the provisions of Paragraphs 1 and 2 above.
