10.2 If the Creditor elects to exercise its rights to take in payment and the Grantor or the Borrower requires that the Creditor instead sell the Charged property on which such right is exercised, the Grantor hereby acknowledges that the Creditor shall not be bound to abandon its recourse of taking in payment unless, prior to the expiry of the time period allotted for surrender, the Creditor i) has been granted a security which it considers satisfactory, guaranteeing that said Charged property will be sold at a sufficiently high price to enable its claim to be paid in full; ii) has been reimbursed of all costs and expenses incurred therefor, including all fees of consultants and legal counsel, iii) has been advanced the necessary sums for the sale of said Charged property; the Borrower further acknowledges that the Creditor shall have the right to choose the type of sale it may carry out.

11.0 General Provisions
