Re: My judgment lien/assignment against Patent #8396664, Notice of Non-Recordation ID #504088931

Dear Ms. Martin,

I am the assignee of record and judgment creditor in the case referenced in the last document of this stack, San Diego Superior Court, Case #37-2014-00012452-CU-BC-CTL. I have been trying since September to get a lien placed on the patent that has been assigned to the judgment debtor Terra Imaging, LLC, since September. I hope that sending you this letter with the accompanying check will be the last step in the process.

As you can see from the accompanying documents, I submitted a Corrective Assignment which was rejected because I failed to attach the cover sheet from my original filing, and I failed to submit payment. I filed an electronic correction as of the date of this letter, but I saw no way to submit payment with a credit card.

Since I needed to send you a payment through the mail anyway, I figured it would be best if I gave you a hard copy of everything that I submitted through the website.

Your Notice of Non-Recordation did not identify the correct fee. Nor does 37 CFR § 3.34. I had to navigate my way to http://www.bitlaw.com/source/37cfr/1_21.html and then look up the fee. It would be more convenient if the required fee was specified in the rejection letter, as well as at the beginning and end of the Corrective Assignment submission process online.

In any case, if I have not submitted the correct fee, please let me know as soon as possible at 951-330-4450 so that I can send you a new check, or pay online, without waiting for you to return the old one.

Thank you for your kind assistance in this matter.

Cordially,

Gregg Roberts
Judgment Creditor

Enclosures: Original assignment cover sheet, corrective assignment cover sheet, notice of non-recordation, and check #1121 in the amount of $40
