Assignment Of Intellectual Property Rights

Whereas, Max Abecassis and Ryan M. Donahue (jointly "Assignors") are the joint inventors of certain inventions and discoveries (the "Inventions") included in a contemporaneously filed U.S. patent application titled "Second Screen Dilemma Function."; and CustomPlay LLC. ("Assignee") desires to record Assignee's ownership of all proprietary rights, including, but not limited to, the copyrights, trade secrets, trademarks and associated good will, and patent rights in the Inventions;

Now, therefore, for valuable consideration, the receipt of which is acknowledged by Assignors, Assignors sell, assign, transfer, and sets over to Assignee the full and entire right, title, and interest in and to the Inventions and: (1) all copyrights, trade secrets, trademarks and associated good will, and all patents which may be granted on the Inventions; (2) all divisional, continuation in whole or in part or substitute patent applications relating to the Inventions filed in the United States or any foreign countries whose duty it is to issue such patents, and all patents which may be granted on such patent applications; (3) any reexamination, reissues, and extensions of such patents; and (4) all rights of priority resulting from such patent applications and patents.

The full and entire right, title, and interest in and to the Inventions and such intellectual property rights as may issue thereof and/or thereto is to be held and enjoyed by Assignee and its legal representatives and assigns, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by Assignors had this sale and assignment not been made.
