ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF CORRECT OWNERSHIP

Sir/Madame:

This corrective paper is filed pursuant to MPEP 323.01(c). On August 25, 2016, an assignment was erroneously executed between Bruce D. Burrows as assignor ("Burrows") and Remington, Inc. as assignee ("Remington"). This assignment document was subsequently erroneously recorded on August 26, 2016. (See reel/frame 039555/0825). The subject of the erroneous assignment is U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 14/575,998.

This statement serves as acknowledgement on behalf of Burrows and Remington that it was never the intent of the parties to consummate said assignment, and that said assignment was void ab initio. By way of explanation, Burrows is the sole inventor listed on the patent application. Burrows is also the sole owner of Remington and the President thereof. On a day when multiple assignment documents were being drafted and executed, this particular assignment document was drafted and executed due to an administrative error, when, in fact, both parties intended that this particular patent application should remain the property of Burrows.
