ASSIGNMENT OF INVENTION

Michael C. Buckmeier, of Moorhead MN, and Dan Norwood, of Fargo, ND (hereinafter "Assignors") have invented new and useful inventions (hereinafter "Invention") described in a United States patent application entitled:

SWING AWAY CONVEYOR

for which Assignors are making application for patent in the United States concurrently herewith.

Norwood Sales, Inc., having a place of business at 11202 38th St S., Horace, ND 58047 (hereinafter "Assignee"), is desirous of acquiring the entire right, title, and interest in the Invention within the United States and its territorial possessions and all foreign countries, and in any patent or patents that may be granted therefrom.

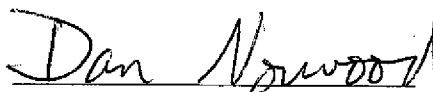

For good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Assignors do assign, sell, and transfer to the Assignee, its successors and assigns, their entire right, title and interest in the Invention, in the patent application identified above, and in any patent granted from the patent application or any divisional, continuation, or continuation-in-part applications resulting from the Invention in the United States and its territorial possessions and all foreign countries.

Assignors hereby covenant that no assignment, sale, agreement, or encumbrance has been or will be made or entered into which would conflict with this Assignment.

I have signed this Assignment on the date specified below.
