ASSIGNMENT

This Assignment is made by Lee A. Reed, an individual residing in Jackson, Mississippi (“Reed”).

WHEREAS, Reed has co-developed a hand restraint device (the “First Invention”); and

WHEREAS, Reed has co-developed intellectual property relating to and supporting the First Invention, including but not limited to research, presentations, publications, notes, drafts, knowledge, specifications, descriptions, drawings, designs, prototypes, or other devices or materials, information contained in patents, pending patents, copyright, trademark, trade secrets, know-how, skill, procedures, processes, methods, published and unpublished financial statements, budgets, business plans, product and marketing plans, marketing strategies, information regarding operating procedures, future plans, and other business information (the “First Related Intellectual Property”); and

WHEREAS, Reed applied for a United States Patent entitled “Hand Restraint Gloves” on June 9, 2015, said patent application being assigned the serial number 14/734,197 (the “First Patent Application”), whereby the First Patent Application embodies aspects of the First Invention; and

WHEREAS, Reed jointly owns all right, title, and interest in and to the First Invention and the First Related Intellectual Property, and owns all right, title, and interest in and to the First Patent Application, and in any further patents, trademarks, or copyrights that may issue therefrom (collectively, the “First IP”); and

WHEREAS, Reed has co-developed a leg restraint device (the “Second Invention”); and

WHEREAS, Reed has co-developed intellectual property relating to and supporting the Second Invention, including but not limited to research, presentations, publications, notes, drafts, knowledge, specifications, descriptions, drawings, designs, prototypes, or other devices or materials, information contained in patents, pending patents, copyright, trademark, trade secrets, know-how, skill, procedures, processes, methods, published and unpublished financial statements, budgets, business plans, product and marketing plans, marketing strategies, information regarding operating procedures, future plans, and other business information (the “Second Related Intellectual Property”); and

WHEREAS, Reed jointly applied for a United States Patent entitled “Remote Controlled Retractable Leg Restraint Device” on May 16, 2017, said patent application being assigned the serial number 15/596,167 (the “Second Patent Application”), whereby the Second Patent Application embodies aspects of the Second Invention; and

WHEREAS, Reed jointly owns all right, title, and interest in and to the Second Invention, the Second Related Intellectual Property, the Second Patent Application, and in any further patents, trademarks, or copyrights that may issue therefrom (collectively, the “Second IP”); and

WHEREAS, Advanced Restraint Systems LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("ARS"), desires to acquire from Reed all of his right, title, and interest in and to the First IP and the Second IP (collectively, the "IP"); and

WHEREAS, Reed wishes to assign to ARS all of his right, title, and interest in and to the IP;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration for the foregoing and the mutual covenants and considerations bargained for and exchanged, the receipt and sufficiency of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, Reed, by these presents, does sell, assign, and transfer unto ARS his entire right, title, and interest, worldwide, in and to the said IP; the same to be held and enjoyed by ARS for its own use and behoof, and for its legal representatives and assigns, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by Reed had this assignment and sale not been made.

Dated this 20 day of May, 2017, in Jackson, Mississippi.
