CONTRACT RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

THE UNDERSIGNED:

1. TOMTOM INTERNATIONAL B.V., a private company with limited liability, incorporated under the laws of the Netherlands, with its registered seat at Rembrandtplein 35 (1017 CT) Amsterdam, The Netherlands, hereinafter referred to as: "TT International";

and

2. TOMTOM Work GmbH, a private company with limited liability, incorporated under the laws of Germany, with its registered seat at Maximilianallee 4, D-04129 Leipzig, hereinafter referred to as: "TT Work".

WHEREAS:

- A. TT International is engaged in the business of developing, designing, having designed and manufactured for it, distributing and selling Personal Navigation Devices, Navigation Software and related products, software and services (hereinafter the "Products").
- B. Both TT International and TT Work are part of the TomTom group of companies (the "TomTom Group"), a group of companies ultimately owned by TomTom NV, a public company with limited liability and incorporated under the laws of the Netherlands with its registered seat at Rembrandtplein 35 (1017 CT) Amsterdam, The Netherlands. The shares of TomTom NV are listed at the Amsterdam Euronext stock exchange.
- C. TT Work acts as a contract Research and Development facility for TT International and is further also engaged in the sale of Products with a focus on tracking and tracing solutions for use in the professional market (also known as the "Webfleet" connected navigation solutions).
- D. TT Work has accepted the assignment from TT International for the further development and design of the Webfleet software for TT International, including hardware development for units supporting Webfleet. The development activities include: i) the designing, programming and testing of the software according to quality standards specified by TT International, and ii) the periodic delivery of controlled release versions of the Webfleet software that meet the quality standards of TT International.

PATENT

THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HAVE HEREBY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1. Scope

- i. This agreement will be effective between parties as of October 1, 2006 (the "Effective Date").
- ii. TT Work will further develop and design the Webfleet software products that are part of the strategic global product lines of the TomTom Group in accordance with TT international instructions.
- iii. TT Work will engage in new design and programming of the Webfleet software to keep the Webfleet software products up to date and in sync with existing and future customer requirements.
- iv. TT Work will test current and new releases of the Webfleet software products and will collect feedback from customers and other users and will use the results to document and solve problems ("bugs") in the relevant Webfleet software products.
- v. TT Work will assure that the Webfleet software products that result from its design and development activities comply with the quality standards as specified and set out by TT International and will periodically deliver controlled release versions of the Webfleet software products.

Article 4. Intellectual property

- i.) TT International will give TT Work access to all necessary information related to source code, design, functionality overviews and platform specifications to enable it to carry out the design and development activities agreed to in this agreement. TT Work will only use this information within the scope of its design and development activities and acknowledges that this agreement and access to this information will not in any way or form constitute a transfer of (beneficial) ownership of know how, hardware and software source code, intellectual property, including without limitation copyright, or any similar ownership from TT International to TT Work.
- ii.) TT Work will make sure to document and keep records of its design and development activities and the outcome thereof and will store these documents and records on IT systems of the TomTom Group accessible by TT International on a regular basis, but at least once per calendar quarter.
- iii.) TT Work may not disclose to any third party any information provided to it by TT International or by any employee, customer, reseller, associate of TT International or of the TomTom Group. TT Work will not keep records of any information referred to in this article, other than necessary for the execution of this agreement. TT Work will ensure that all information, documents, specification, source code, and any other information received by it as a result or in connection with this agreement will be returned to TT International and all records of it will be destroyed within 5 working days upon termination of this agreement. This also applies to any and all information related to source code, design, functionality overviews, platform specifications and similar information that TT Work has developed or created in the course of this agreement.

- iv.) To the extent that any activities by TT Work result in know how, hardware and/or software source code, intellectual property, copyright, or any similar property rights, the parties agree that TT International shall be the sole and only owner of any such property and that TT Work has no ownership rights in any property so developed and is not entitled to any compensation with regard to these rights and properties. Where so required, TT Work shall fully cooperate and assist TT International with any filing(s) and/or registrations to be carried out to effect and obtain the relevant property rights.
- v.) TT International shall at all times remain the (beneficial) owner of all the hardware and software and other products designed and developed in the course of this agreement, including any and all changes made to the hardware and software by TT Work.

Article 5. Governing Law

- i.) This agreement shall be governed by Dutch law. Any and all disputes arising out of or in connection with this agreement between TT International and TT Work will be settled exclusively by the competent courts of the place in which TT International has its registered office.
- ii.) All correspondence between parties concerning this agreement will be in English language and may be in writing or in electronic form.

THE PARTIES HERETO HAVE EXECUTED THIS AGREEMENT TO BE EFFECTIVE AS OF THE EFFECTIVE DATE.
