Corporate identity no. 556718-7405
c/o Staffan Larsson, Attorney
Advokatbolaget Fagersand
Skrapan 2210
72210 Västerås
(Seller)

1.1 Gerdins Holding AB
Corporate identity no.
556490-3325
Kustvägen 8
870 31 Mjällom
(Buyer)

2. Merchandise

2.1 Entire business managed by RobCab AB and subsequently the estate in bankruptcy, including but not limited to

A. Autonomous robot development project, including software on two servers, 3 Etteplan DVDs, other documentation and patents listed in Attachment 1

B. Equipment pursuant to Attachment 2

2.2 For the sake of clarity, the Merchandise includes under any and all circumstances all RobCab AB patents, patent applications, patentable and unpatentable discoveries, brands, trade secrets, know-how, copyright and all other intellectual property rights; transfer of the Merchandise grants Buyer full and unrestricted right of disposal to the Merchandise, including the right to change, transfer or license it

3. Purchase price

3.1 The purchase price is SEK three hundred fifty thousand (350,000).

3.2 Because the entire business is being transferred, no VAT is to be paid. If, however, the tax authorities determine that VAT is to be paid and thereby require Seller to provide it, Buyer undertakes to immediately pay it to Seller.

3.3 The purchase price is to be deposited to the law firm's escrow account no. 8182-8, 13 100 423-6 at Sparbanken Västra Mälardalen by August 30, 2015.

4. Possession

- 4.1 Buyer shall take possession of the Merchandise as soon as the estate in bankruptcy receives the entire purchase price pursuant to Section 3.3 above (Day of Taking Possession).
- 4.2 On the Day of Taking Possession, Seller and Buyer shall draw up and sign a joint document concerning transfer of patents as specified by Attachment 3, as well as a document concerning transfer of discoveries and patent applications as specified by Attachment 4.

5. Condition and discharge from liability

- 5.1 Seller has urged Buyer, who is aware that Seller is an estate in bankruptcy that has held the Merchandise for only a short time and that the Merchandise is being transferred as-is, to inventory and inspect the Merchandise. Given that the purchase price includes such considerations, Buyer declares that it waives any claims on Seller due to errors or defects, including those related to the lists in Attachments 1-2.

6. Other terms

- 6.1 Reservation of ownership

Seller reserves ownership until the Merchandise has been paid in full.

- 6.2 Use of premises, servers, etc.

The Merchandise is currently stored at premises belonging to another subsidiary of Buyer's group. With that in mind, Buyer pledges to ensure requisite right of use to existing premises as of the Day of Taking Possession.

Some documentation is stored on servers belonging to subsidiaries of Buyer's group. Buyer pledges to ensure that requisite access is obtained to that information and that storage is secure.

- 6.3 Insurance

Seller is liable to insure the Merchandise until the Day of Taking Possession and Buyer is liable after that. If the Merchandise suffers indemnifiable losses before the Day of Taking Possession, the purchase shall nevertheless be completed, whereby Buyer, after paying the purchase price less the deductible, shall assume Seller's right to compensation pursuant to the policy. Buyer shall not be entitled to other compensation as a result of said losses.

- 6.4 Reclamation items

To the knowledge of Seller, the assets of the business include some that belong to a third party (reclamation items) pursuant to the list in Attachment 5. Buyer pledges to release said items to their rightful owner and take care of them until such time as that can occur. Said commitment by Buyer shall apply to any additional reclamation items that come to the attention of the parties.

Buyer shall be obligated to sign an agreement with the owner of any reclamation items it wishes to use.

This agreement has been drawn up in duplicate, one copy to each party.
