RECITALS

WHEREAS, Assignors, as Sellers, and Assignee, Chattem, Inc., Sanofi-Aventis Canada, Inc. and Sanofi-Aventis US LLC, as Purchasers, have entered into an Agreement, dated as of 26 June 2018 (the "APA"), pursuant to which Sellers agreed to sell, transfer and assign to Purchasers, and Purchasers agreed to acquire and assume from Sellers the Flomax Business in the USA and Canada; and

Each Party shall notify the other Party in writing of a change to its details in Section 3.1 from time to time.

3.2 Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) Governing Law. This Assignment and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this Assignment shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of Switzerland, without regard to rules pertaining to conflicts of law.

(b) Arbitration. In the event that any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or in connection with the Transaction Documents or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, including the determination of the scope or applicability of this agreement to arbitrate, and also including claims sounding in contract, tort, statutory or otherwise (a “Dispute”) is not satisfactorily resolved by amicable negotiation between the Parties within twenty (20) Business Days of a written notice of a claim sent by either Party, all such disputes or any unresolved part thereof shall be finally resolved and decided by binding arbitration under the Rules of Arbitration (the “Rules”) of the International Chamber of Commerce (the “ICC”) as in effect as of the date of commencement of the arbitration proceedings by three (3) arbitrators to be selected in the following manner: within thirty (30) days of the commencement of the arbitration (as described in Section 4.5 of the Rules), one arbitrator shall be selected by the petitioning Party (the “Petitioner”), and one arbitrator shall be selected by the Party defending the arbitration (the “Respondent”) within thirty (30) days thereafter, failing which such arbitrator shall be appointed by the ICC pursuant to the Rules. The third arbitrator, who shall serve as chair of the arbitral tribunal, shall be selected by the two (2) arbitrators selected by the Petitioner and the Respondent, or, if such arbitrators cannot agree within thirty (30) days on the third arbitrator, such arbitrator will be selected by the ICC pursuant to the Rules. Each arbitrator shall be and remain independent of the Parties involved in the arbitration. Any Party shall refer the Dispute to arbitration by sending a written request to the Secretariat (as defined in Article 1.5 of the Rules). The arbitration proceedings shall take place in Geneva, Switzerland and shall be conducted in the English language. The arbitral tribunal shall be obliged to render a final award on a date that is no longer than twelve (12) months from the date on which the third (3rd) arbitrator is selected in accordance with this Section 3.2(b); provided, however, that this deadline may be extended by the ICC. The final award of the arbitral tribunal shall be in writing and shall set forth in detail the facts of the Dispute and the reasons for the decision. The arbitral award shall be binding upon the Parties; to the fullest extent admitted under Applicable Law, the Parties hereby waive any and all rights to challenge the decisions and award rendered by the arbitral tribunal. Any Party may bring an action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking, as an interim or conservatory measure, specific performance or other equitable relief (or its equivalent), including without limitation pursuant to Section 3.2(d) (Specific Performance), or to preserve the status quo until any arbitration is concluded. Except in a proceeding to enforce the results of the arbitration or as otherwise required by Applicable Law, no Party nor any arbitrator may disclose the existence, content or results of any arbitration hereunder without the prior written agreement of both Parties. All fees, costs and expenses of the arbitrators and/or the ICC that arise from the arbitral proceedings shall be paid by the non-prevailing Party. All other fees, costs and expenses shall be allocated between the Parties by the arbitral tribunal.

(c) Consent to Jurisdiction. Each Party accepts and consents to the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal and, solely for purposes of the enforcement of the arbitral award, any court of competent jurisdiction, for itself and in respect of its property. The arbitral award shall be binding on the Parties, who hereby waive any appeal of such award to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Law. In the event that the non-prevailing Party fails or refuses to comply with the arbitral award within thirty (30) Business Days following the date of receipt of notice of the award, then the prevailing Party, the arbitrators or their respective attorneys-in-fact may immediately proceed to request the judicial approval necessary for execution and enforcement of the award before a competent court. The Parties agree that the award may be enforced in accordance with the provisions of the 1958 United Nations Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, or other Applicable Laws. The arbitral tribunal shall not have the authority to award punitive damages.

(d) Specific Performance. Without affecting any other rights or remedies of the Parties under this Assignment, each Party acknowledges and agrees that, in addition to any other remedies that may be available to it, each Party shall be entitled to seek to enforce the terms of this Assignment by a decree of specific performance. Any such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for a breach of this Assignment, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity to the Parties.

3.3 No Third Party Enforcement Rights. A Person who is not a party to this Assignment shall have no right under any statutory provision to enforce any of its terms.

3.4 Severability. The provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof. If any term or other provision of this Assignment, or the application thereof to any person or entity or any circumstance, is invalid, illegal or unenforceable: (a) a suitable and equitable provision shall be substituted therefor in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of such invalid or unenforceable provision, and (b) the remainder of this Assignment and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances shall not be affected by such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, nor shall such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability affect the validity or enforceability of such provision, or the application thereof, in any other jurisdiction.

3.5 Alternative Arrangement. In case this Assignment should be considered invalid for reasons beyond the control of the Parties, Assignor undertakes to maintain the Trademarks and Designs on the request and on the expense of Assignee. In this case Assignor will also assist Assignee with the defence of the Trademarks and Designs. It is the understanding of both Parties that in case of invalidity of this Assignment Assignor will be deemed to have granted to Assignee an exclusive and unlimited, fully paid up license to use the Trademarks and Designs, beginning with the execution of this Assignment by both Parties, and that all use of the Trademarks and Designs by the Assignee, their Affiliates and licensees will be regarded as use with the consent of Assignor.

3.6 Amendment; Waiver. No amendment of this Assignment shall be valid unless it is in writing referring expressly to this Assignment and duly executed by or on behalf of each Party. No failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall affect or operate as a waiver or variation of that right or remedy or preclude its exercise at any subsequent time. No single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy shall preclude any further exercise of it or the exercise of any other remedy.

3.7 Headings. The heading references herein are for convenience purposes only, do not constitute a part of this Assignment and shall not be deemed to limit or affect any of the provisions hereof.

3.8 Entire Agreement. This Assignment, together with the SPA and Ancillary Agreements, contains the entire agreement between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, with respect to such matters, except for any written agreement of the Parties that expressly provides that it is not superseded by this Assignment.

3.9 Independent Parties. This Assignment shall not be deemed to create any partnership, joint venture, amalgamation or agency relationship between Assignee and Assignor. Each Party shall act hereunder as an independent contractor.

3.10 Interpretation. The Parties acknowledge and agree that: (a) each Party and its representatives has reviewed and negotiated the terms and provisions of this Assignment and have contributed to its revision, (b) the rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguities are resolved against the drafting Party shall not be employed in the interpretation of this Assignment, (c) the terms and provisions of this Assignment shall be construed fairly as to each Party and not in favor of or against either Party regardless of which Party was generally responsible for preparation of this Assignment, and (d) whenever the words "include," "includes," or "including" are used in this Assignment, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "but not limited to."

3.11 Counterparts. This Assignment may be executed in any number of counterparts, and by each Party on separate counterparts. Each counterpart is an original, but all counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of a counterpart of this Assignment by e-mail attachment or telecopy shall be an effective mode of delivery.
