EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into effective as of the 1st day of March, 2012, is by and between Kids II, Inc. (hereinafter called "Company"), and Eden Peterson (hereinafter called "Employee").

WITNESSETH:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

24. Ownership Of Inventions and Intellectual Property. Employee shall disclose fully, promptly, and in writing to Company any and all inventions, discoveries, improvements, modifications and other intellectual property rights (collectively, the "Intellectual Property Rights"), whether or not patentable and/or copyrightable, as the case may be, which Employee has conceived, made or developed, solely or jointly with others, while employed by Company and which (i) relate to the business, work or activities of any member of Company; or (ii) result from or are suggested by the performance of Employee's duties hereunder or from or by any information that Employee may, directly or indirectly, receive while employed by Company. Employee agrees that all copyrightable works created by Employee or under Company's direction in connection with Company's business are "works made for hire" and shall be the sole and complete property of Company and that any and all copyrights of such works shall belong solely to Company. To the extent such copyrightable works are not deemed to be "works made for hire" and with respect to any and all other Intellectual Property Rights, Employee hereby assigns, transfers and conveys to Company all of Employee's right, title and interest in copyrights and to any and all other Intellectual Property Rights, including, but not limited to, patents, and agrees to take all such actions as may be requested by Company at any time and from time to time to confirm or evidence the assignment, transfer and conveyance of such. Furthermore, at any time and from time to time, upon the request of Company, Employee shall execute and deliver to Company any and all instruments, documents and papers, provide evidence and do any and all other acts that, in the opinion of Company, are or may be necessary or desirable to document such assignment, transfer and conveyance or to enable Company to file and prosecute applications for and to acquire, maintain and enforce any and all patents, trademark registrations or copyrights under United States or foreign law with respect to any Intellectual Property Rights or to obtain any extension, validation, reissue, continuance or renewal of any such patent, trademark, or copyright. Company shall be responsible for the preparation of any such instruments, documents and papers and for the prosecution of any such proceedings and shall reimburse Employee for all reasonable expenses incurred by Employee in compliance with the provisions of this Paragraph.

[REDACTED]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above.

Employment Agreement

This Agreement is effective as of the date provided below between the undersigned employee (hereinafter referred to as "Employee") and Kids II, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "the Company," a term which includes its affiliates, successors and assigns).

The purpose of this agreement is to safeguard the information and relationships upon which the Company and its Employees depend for the continued success of the Company's business and the livelihood of the Employees.

EMPLOYEE AND THE COMPANY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

[REDACTED]

3. Inventions: Employee will promptly and fully disclose in writing to the Company all inventions, designs, concepts, discoveries, developments, improvements, and innovations, whether or not they merit patent, trademark or copyright protection (hereinafter called "inventions") conceived of or made by Employee, either solely or in concert with others, during the period of Employee's employment with the Company, including any period prior to the date of this Agreement, whether or not made or conceived during work hours which:

- (a) relate in any manner to the existing or contemplated business or research activities of the Company, or
- (b) are suggested by or result from Employee's work at the Company, or
- (c) result from the use of the Company's time, materials, or facilities.

Employee will keep and maintain adequate written records of all such inventions at all stages thereof, in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, photographs, printouts, and reports relating thereto. These records are and shall remain the property of, and be available to, the Company at all times.

Employee further acknowledges that all such inventions discussed in the preceding paragraphs shall be the exclusive property of the Company. As such, Employee hereby assigns to the Company Employee's entire right, title, and interest in and to all such inventions which are the property of the Company, and to all unprotected inventions which Employee now owns, except any inventions which have been specifically described in a separate written statement executed by an authorized officer of the Company and Employee, and attached to this Agreement. Employee hereby assigns to the Company Employee's entire right, title and interest in any invention disclosed by Employee to a third person or described in a patent, trademark, or copyright application filed by Employee or on Employee's behalf within six (6) months following the termination of Employee's employment, unless the Employee proves that the invention was conceived and made by Employee following the termination of employment. Employee will, at the Company's request and expense, execute specific transfers, assignments, documents or other instruments and take such further action as may be considered necessary by the Company at any time during or subsequent to Employee's employment with the Company to obtain and defend any intellectual property rights in any and all countries and vest complete title and ownership to such inventions to the Company or its assignees.
