Re: U.S. Patent Nos. 9,624,664 and 9,896,853 (File No. 8361-0002)

Dear Mr. Brower:

We represent Jennifer Judd in intellectual property matters. Ms. Judd is the owner of and sole inventor for U.S. Patent Nos. 9,624,664 and 9,896,853, each entitled "Popcorn Ceiling Patch" (hereinafter "the Judd Patents").

We understand that there had been a License Agreement between Ms. Judd and you that was entered into on March 15, 2016. We further understand that, as the result of several material breaches of the Agreement, none of which have been adequately addressed to date, Ms. Judd terminated the license by letter dated July 10, 2018 after providing written notice by letter dated April 2, 2018. However, we have learned that you are continuing activities with respect to the Judd Patents in violation of Ms. Judd's rights. In particular, you are continuing to manufacture, market and sell your "Self-Adhesive POPCORN Ceiling Patch" Product, Item No. 3059 (hereinafter "the Product").

In view of the foregoing, we must demand that you immediately cease and desist all such activities, including manufacturing, marketing and/or selling the Product and any other products that infringe Ms. Judd's intellectual property rights. We also demand that you remove all images and descriptions of such Product from your website, stepsavers.com.

We further request that you provide a full and complete account of the following:

- Identify all Product manufactured since March 15, 2016;
- Identify all sales of the Product since March 15, 2016, including specific dates and quantities for each sale; and
- Identify current inventory of the Product in your possession.

We hope that you will understand Ms. Judd's position in making these demands. Ms. Judd respects the intellectual property rights of others and demands similar respect for her own intellectual property rights. Moreover, Ms. Judd is not litigious by nature, but must protect her investment in intellectual property. Accordingly, we hope that you will agree to the foregoing so that both parties can avoid the cost and aggravation of litigation.

We would appreciate your written confirmation of compliance with Ms. Judd's requests by September 28, 2018. In the event we fail to hear from you, we will advise Ms. Judd to consider all legal options and remedies available to her.

Very truly yours,

McCormick, Paulding & Huber LLP
