In the year two thousand and thirteen and on 22 May at 6 p.m., the shareholders of CGGVeritas Services SA (the "Company") met in an extraordinary general meeting, at the head office of CGG, Tour Maine Montparnasse, 33 Avenue du Maine, 75015 Paris. The meeting was called by the Board of Directors.

Each shareholder was given notice of the meeting by letter sent by ordinary post on 30 April 2013.

An attendance sheet was produced. It was signed by each shareholder as they entered the meeting.

Mr Benoît Ribadeau-Dumas chaired the meeting as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr Jean-Georges Maïcor, shareholder present at the meeting and agreeing thereto, was asked to act as scrutineer.

The Chairman noted that apologies for absence had been received from Mazars and Ernst & Young et Autres, duly notified of the meeting by letter sent by registered post with acknowledgement of receipt on 30 April 2013.

The Chairman also noted that apologies for absence had been received from the representatives of the Works Council, whose Secretary had been duly notified of the meeting by letter sent by registered post with acknowledgement of receipt on 30 April 2013.

Miss Emilie Puchol was appointed secretary of the meeting.

The officers' committee being regularly formed, the Chairman declared the meeting open.

The Chairman noted that, according to the attendance sheet certified by the officers of the meeting, the shareholders present at the meeting held three hundred and six million, eight hundred and sixty-four thousand, seven hundred and twenty (306,864,720) shares out of the three hundred and six million, eight hundred and sixty-four thousand, seven hundred and twenty-four (306,864,724) shares making up the share capital with voting rights.

Consequently, as more than one quarter of the share capital was represented at the general meeting, it was regularly formed and could deliberate.

The Chairman put the following documents on the desk and made them available to the shareholders:

- Copies of the notices of the meeting sent to shareholders and the Works Council Secretary;
- Copies of the postal acknowledgements of receipt of the notices of the meeting sent to the statutory auditors;
- The attendance sheet signed by the officers of the meeting;
- The report produced by the Board of Directors;
- A copy of the up-to-date articles of association (statuts);
- The draft resolutions proposed to shareholders by the Board of Directors.

The Chairman then declares that all of the documents and information that, by law, must be communicated to the shareholders, were made available to the shareholders at the Company's registered office, as of the date of the convening of the meeting and that the Company satisfied, as required by law, the requests for documents it received. The general meeting took official note of this declaration.

- Changes to the name of the Company and its branches;
- Corresponding amendment to Article 3 of the articles of association;
