Declaration of Ronald W. Stanley to Confirm and Correct Patent Assignment and Trademark Assignment from All-American Hose LLC.

I, Ronald W. Stanley, declare as follows:

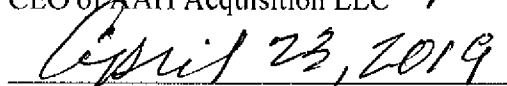

1. I am the Chief Executive Officer of AAH Acquisition LLC, dba All-American Hose LLC, a Delaware limited liability company having an address at 217 Titusville Road, Union City, Pennsylvania, United States of America 16438 ("AAH Acquisition").
2. I have held this position for three (3) years.
3. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this Declaration.
4. AAH Acquisition acquired certain intellectual property assets, including without limitation, the patents and trademark registrations set forth on Exhibit A (the "Registered IP"), from All-American Hose LLC, a Delaware limited liability company having an address at 217 Titusville Road, Union City, Pennsylvania, United States of America 16438 ("All-American Hose") pursuant to a proceeding for breach of contract and appointment of receiver, captioned as First Niagara Bank, N.A. v. All-American Hose, LLC, Case Number 11718-VCG, in The Court of Chancery of The State of Delaware, United States of America, filed on November 18, 2015 (the "Receivership"). The relevant facts relating to the acquisition of the Registered IP are set forth below.
5. As part of the Receivership, the Delaware Court of Chancery electronically granted an order appointing Compass Advisory Partners, LLC having an address at The Carlyle, 306 Fourth Avenue, Suite 701, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15222 ("Compass") receiver. See, In the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware Stipulated and [Proposed] Order Appointing Receiver granted November 19, 2015, attached as Exhibit B.
6. On March 15, 2016, Compass (on behalf of All-American Hose) and AAH Acquisition entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement ("APA"), a redacted copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Pursuant to the APA, AAH Acquisition acquired, "any and all of the Debtor's intellectual property, licensed intellectual property, trade names and other agreements related therein, including those set forth on Schedule 1.1(i)." See, Section 1.1(i) of Exhibit C.
7. On April 21, 2016, the Delaware Court of Chancery electronically entered an Order for Compass Advisory Partners LLC to (a) Sell Substantially All of Defendant's Assets Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims and Encumbrances and (b) Terminate Receiver's Duties and Obligations (the "Free and Clear Order"), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit D. The Free and Clear Order approved the APA, thus enabling Compass, on behalf of All-American Hose, to transfer All-American Hose's intellectual property to AAH Acquisition.

8. The Free and Clear Order also terminated the Receiver's duties and obligations in the proceeding upon the closing date of the APA. As such, the Receiver is unavailable to execute a new assignment or a confirmatory assignment for the Registered IP.
9. On April 25, 2016, pursuant to the APA, All-American Hose changed its legal name to NASC Estate LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. A copy of the Delaware Certificate of Amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit E.
10. On May 11, 2016, AAH Acquisition filed a fictitious name registration for All-American Hose LLC with the Pennsylvania Secretary of State. A copy of the online records of the Pennsylvania Secretary of State website are attached as Exhibit F. In the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of the United States of America, to the extent a person or entity conducts business under a name, which is not a proper legal name, such alternate name is identified as a "fictitious name" and is required to be registered with the Pennsylvania Department of State.
11. On October 21, 2016, a Patent Assignment Agreement was recorded in the United States Patent and Trademark Office's assignment records at reel/frame number 040249/0100. A copy of the assignment document and filing receipt are attached as Exhibit G. A Trademark Assignment Agreement was recorded on the same date bearing reel/frame number 005916/0406 and a copy including filing receipt are attached as Exhibit H. Both assignment agreements were executed by All-American Hose and All-American Hose Acquisitions LLC (collectively, the "Patent and Trademark Assignments").
12. The Patent and Trademark Assignments had a number of inadvertent errors, including the following:
  - a. The party referenced as "All-American Hose LLC" should have been NASC Estate, LLC, formerly known as All-American Hose LLC. This is the correct entity, but a ministerial error identified the wrong name.
  - b. The party referenced as All-American Hose Acquisitions LLC should have been AAH Acquisition LLC, dba All-American Hose LLC. This is the correct entity, but a ministerial error identified the wrong name.
  - c. I inadvertently executed the Patent and Trademark Assignments for All-American Hose LLC, and the signatory should have been Compass on behalf of NASC Estate, LLC, formerly known as All-American Hose LLC.
13. Irrespective of the erroneous information on the Patent and Trademark Assignments, the APA and the Free and Clear Order provide evidence of AAH Acquisition's exclusive ownership of the intellectual property assets, including without limitation, the Registered IP.
14. The record of title for the Registered IP in the Patent Assignment and Trademark Assignment records of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office needs to be corrected to reflect the proper chain of title of the Registered IP in the name of AAH Acquisition LLC, dba All-American Hose LLC. Further, the record of title for the Registered IP should be properly recorded in the name of AAH Acquisition LLC, dba All-American Hose LLC before the Canadian Intellectual Property Office and the Australian Intellectual Property Office, IP Australia.

The declarant being warned that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. 1001, and that such willful false statements and the like may jeopardize the validity of the application or submission or any registration resulting therefrom, declares that all statements made of his/her own knowledge are true and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true.

Defendant.

C.A. No.: 11718-VCG

STIPULATED AND [PROPOSED] ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER

AND NOW, this _____ day of _____, 2015, upon consideration of the Verified Complaint to Appoint Receiver (the “Complaint”)<sup>1</sup> filed by First Niagara Bank, N.A. (“Lender” or “Plaintiff”), and defendant All-American Hose LLC (“Defendant”) having reviewed the Complaint, and engaged in arms’ length discussions and negotiations with Lender, and based on the exchange of the considerations set forth herein, the Complaint is hereby GRANTED to the extent set forth below and it hereby is ORDERED, AGREED and DECREED that:

<sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Complaint.

GENERAL FINDINGS

1. Service of the Complaint was accepted by Defendant.
2. Defendant is in default (the “Existing Defaults”) under the Loan Documents, which Existing Defaults are material and continuing.
3. Defendant is unable to effectively manage and operate its real property and business affairs due to, inter alia, lack of cash and access to additional financing.
4. Defendant’s business operations have suffered (and continue to suffer).
5. As a result of the foregoing, the preservation and value of Defendant’s assets are at risk of decline, deterioration, and dissolution.
6. The appointment of a receiver for Defendant is necessary to preserve and maintain the value of Defendant’s assets and business and to market Defendant’s business, personal property and owned and leased real property (the “Real Property”) for sale as the Receiver deems appropriate.
7. Pursuant to Delaware Court of Chancery Rule 148, this Court’s inherent equitable powers, and section 7.3 of the Loan Agreement, dated October 31, 2014, between Defendant and Lender, and with Defendant’s consent, the Court is authorized to appoint a receiver over Defendant.

8. The Plaintiff has requested that this Court appoint Compass Advisory Partners, LLC (“Compass” or the “Receiver”) as receiver.

AUTHORITY AND DUTIES OF RECEIVER

9. Compass is hereby appointed the receiver for Defendant to take control, custody, and management of Defendant’s business and the Real Property and, except as set forth to the contrary herein, all of Defendant’s personal property, including, among other things, all general intangibles, bills and accounts receivable, cash on hand and in banks, and all of Defendant’s contract rights, and all leases, contracts, rights, insurance policies (excluding any liability, fidelity, errors and omissions, directors and officers liability, or other fiduciary-type policies of insurance and any proceeds thereof hereafter “Claim Policies”, provided that Receiver may request to be added to such applicable Claim Policies, as an additional covered party, provided further, however, the Defendant makes no representation regarding whether any insurer will agree to add the Receiver to any Claims Policy), claims, causes of action (excluding all claims, rights, and coverage available under any applicable insurance policy, indemnity agreement, insured contract, fidelity bond, or similar arrangement to pay, reimburse, or defend any loss, direct loss, damages, punitive damages, defense costs, investigative costs, liability or similar sums), intangibles, drawings, licenses, permits, patents, trademarks and names, copyrights, corporate franchises, and its income and profits, books of accounts, records and other books, papers and accounts, deeds, muniments of title, and all interests, easements, privileges, rights and assets of every kind and whatever nature owned by or which Defendant has any interest in whatsoever (the “Personal Property”, and collectively with the Real Property, the “Receivership Property”), until such time as provided for in accordance with the following terms of this Order. Compliance with Delaware Court of Chancery Rule 150 shall not be required. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any provision herein to the contrary, and by way of further clarification, Receivership Property shall not include claims and causes of action including, without limitation, any causes of action under 6 Del. C. §§1301, et seq. or 6 Del. C. §§ 18-607 and 18-804 other than Defendant’s rights to enforce upon and otherwise collect its receivables and other tangible assets. Receivership Property shall not include any documents, in any format or media, that are subject to the attorney client privilege, work product doctrine or any other similar privilege or doctrine. Receiver shall not be entitled to obtain any information or documents that fall within the attorney client privilege or work product doctrine. Lender and Defendant agree that the only functions of the Receiver shall be to: (a) manage the day-to-day affairs of the business of Defendant; (b) sell the business of Defendant; and/or (c) liquidate Defendant’s business and assets. Defendant shall retain all other rights with regard to its affairs, including but not limited to: (a) administering and or dissolving All-

American Hose, LLC 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and All American Hose, LLC UAW Employee' Pension Plan, (b) maintaining, selling and/or otherwise liquidating Defendant's Cessna Citation 650, serial number 650-0222, FAA number N-333AH (the "Citation Jet") and the proceeds thereof, (c) administering its claims and causes of action other than those related to Defendant's ordinary course of business, (d) all tax matters except as otherwise provided herein, (e) all rights with respect to any liability, fidelity, errors and omissions, directors and officers liability, or other fiduciary policies of insurance and any proceeds thereof, and (f) dissolving under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, 6 Del. C. § 18-101, et seq. (collectively, the "Non-Receivership Property"). The Receiver shall be compensated consistent with the provisions of Delaware Court of Chancery Rules 164-167. The Receiver will be compensated at the rate of $325.00 per hour for principals, $300 per hour for managing directors, $275.00 per hour for directors and $75.00 per hour for administrative assistants. The Receiver shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of the Receiver's duties, including reasonable attorneys' fees. The Receiver may be paid from the revenue of the Receivership Property, or if the Receivership Property is not sufficient to pay the Receiver's personal expenses and fees, Lender agrees to indemnify and pay all of the Receiver's reasonable expenses and fees, including the Receiver's reasonable legal fees incurred on or after the Effective Date.

Moreover, Lender agrees to indemnify the Receiver, its agents and subcontractors, from any liability, debts, claims, demands, damages, actions, causes of action and/or judgments which (i) arise out of the receivership herein, (ii) are brought against the Receiver, its agents or subcontractors, personally, and (iii) are not attributable to the Receiver, its agents' or subcontractors' intentional misconduct or gross negligence. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall be construed as an agreement by Lender to indemnify any party (with the exception of the Receiver) for any liability, debts, claims, demands, actions, causes of action and/or judgments of or against (a) either Defendant or (b) any of Defendant's officers, directors, shareholders or employees. In no event shall any of Defendant, Defendant's officers, directors, shareholders, members or employees be liable for any of the Receiver's fees or expenses, or any action or inaction by the Receiver in exercising his duties hereunder, including, without limitation, the operation of Defendant's business or the sale, abandonment or other disposition of Receivership Property.

10. Subject to such restrictions as may be expressed in this Order, and subject to the rights, interests, and benefit of Lender, the Receiver is granted all of the rights, duties and responsibilities of a court-appointed receiver, including all functions necessary to continue the operation of Defendant's business and the Receivership Property and including, in any event, all necessary powers to manage and operate Defendant and the Receivership Property, including, but not limited to, the following powers and responsibilities: (a) to take possession of the Receivership Property, including but not limited to, all books, records, bank accounts, keys, combinations for locks or other access information, or which relate in any manner to the management or operation of all or any portion of the Receivership Property, (b) to direct Defendant, and its members, officers, agents, employees or other representatives to immediately turn over and deliver or cause to be delivered to the Receiver or its designee all personalty which relates in any manner to the management or operation of the Receivership Property, including but not limited to, all keys, combinations for locks or other access codes, books, records, accounts, operating statements, reserve accounts and the like pertaining to the operation of the Receivership Property, (c) to sell or lease or transfer all or any portion of the Receivership Property and to do all acts and things necessary or advisable in connection therewith, (d) to execute all deeds, leases or other instruments in the name of Defendant regarding Defendant's right, title and interest in and to any of the Receivership Property, (e) to negotiate all bills, drafts, notes or other instruments in the name of Defendant, (f) to take such steps with respect to the outstanding accounts payable in order to maintain, preserve, and protect the Receivership Property including, but not limited to, to discern the status of the outstanding accounts payable and to settle any such accounts that the Receiver or its designee deems necessary and the power to demand, collect and receive from all present and future tenants or occupants and account debtors, (g) to employ such counsel, accountants or other professionals, as may be necessary in order to carry out the duties as Receiver and to preserve, maintain and liquidate the Receivership Property, (h) to terminate, cancel, abrogate or suspend performance under any or all agreements, contracts, understandings or commitments entered into by Defendant with respect to the Receivership Property, (i) to maintain existing or open new accounts with, or negotiate, compromise or otherwise resolve existing obligations to taxing bodies or municipal entities, utility companies or other service providers or suppliers of goods or services or to otherwise enter into such agreements, contracts or understandings with such taxing bodies or municipal entities or other service providers or suppliers as relate to and are necessary to maintain, preserve and protect the Receivership Property, (j) to open new bank accounts, (k) to borrow such additional funds, if any, which Lender may be willing to lend for the operation of the business and the operation, preservation and maintenance of the Receivership Property, including current costs of repairs and general maintenance, security, utilities, insurance, real estate taxes or other necessary expenses and services (the “Additional Loans”), (l) to grant liens on and security interests in the Receivership Property to secure any Additional Loans, and (m) to apply to this Court for further direction and for such further powers as may be necessary to enable the Receiver to fulfill its duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and to avoid uncertainty, Receiver must, with prior notice to Defendant's counsel, obtain court approval to take any actions that are out of the ordinary course of Defendant's business unless Defendant expressly consents to the proposed action; provided, however, that individual sales of Receivership Property for less than: (x) $100,000 shall not require court approval; and (y) for more than $50,000, shall be on prior notice to Defendant's counsel (electronic notice being an acceptable form of notice). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the Receiver's operation of the Defendant's business or the Receivership Property conflicts with Defendant's administration of the Non-Receivership Property, the parties shall work together and reasonably cooperate to avoid any dispute.

11. Any Additional Loans by Lender shall be governed and secured by the Loan Documents or any additional loan documents which Lender may require and the Receiver may agree to. Notwithstanding any provision in this Order, Lender is and will continue to be secured by the Receivership Property to the same extent, validity and priority it was prior to the Effective Date (as defined herein). Any such advances made to the Receiver or Defendant that Lender is obligated or allowed to make under any mortgage or Loan Documents; any advances made toward all or part of the cost of completing any erection, construction, alteration or repair of the Real Property, the financing of which a particular Mortgage was given to secure, including but not limited to, any contractor for labor performed or materials furnished in connection with the Properties, whether or not secured by a mechanics' lien; any advances to pay taxes, assessments, maintenance charges and insurance premiums; any advances for costs incurred for the protection and preservation of the Real Property or the lien of the Mortgages; any advances for expenses incurred by Lender by reason of an Existing Default; or any advances for any other costs incurred by Lender to protect and preserve the Real Property or the Receivership Property, will continue to be secured by a first priority lien on the Real Property in accordance with the respective Mortgages for the subject property and 42 Pa.C.S. § 8143. Any advances made by Lender will accrue interest at the Default Rate set forth in the Loan Documents.

12. In order to exercise the authority conferred upon it under this paragraph and more generally by this Order, and subject to the limitations contained within this Order, the Receiver is hereby vested with the standing and all power and authority of, but without the liability of or associated with, or obligation to act as: (a) the manager of Defendant, (b) Defendant in its capacity and relationship as "employer" as the Receiver deems necessary for the operation and management of the Receivership Property, including, but not limited to, the power and authority to (i) execute documents, instruments and resolutions in connection with any authorized sale or finance transaction, and (ii) have and obtain access to employee records, reports and communications and other work product related to the ordinary course of Defendant's business, provided, however, no action or inaction by the Receiver shall cause or result in any liability of Defendant's officers, directors, members, shareholders or employees.

13. The Receiver is authorized in its discretion to employ, fix and pay the compensation, salaries and wages of all managers, agents, employees, servants and contractors for Defendant as may be advisable or necessary in its judgment for the operation, management, conduct, control, leasing, sale or custody of the affairs of the Receivership Property.

14. The Receiver is authorized to pay, from the income and receipts of the business operations of Defendant and all other funds and monies coming into its hands pursuant to this Order as follows:

- (a) first, to the Receiver toward payment of the Receiver's compensation in accordance with this Order after securing Court approval of the reasonableness of the compensation;
- (b) second, to the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Receiver in the performance of its duties in accordance with this Order after securing Court approval of the reasonableness of the costs and expenses;
- (c) third, to the payment of all expenses reasonably necessary to hold, retain, manage, lease, operate, use, preserve and protect the Receivership Property in accordance with this Order, provided, however, except in cases of emergency as reasonably determined by Receiver, that Receiver shall not expend in excess of $5,000.00 for any single repair, replacement or capital improvement without the prior written approval of Lender or absent such approval of Lender, further application or authorization by this Court; provided, however, neither the Receiver nor Lender shall be liable for any expenses, claims or liabilities incurred with regard to the Receivership Property prior to the Effective Date of this Order. The Receiver shall not be required to use any income and receipts collected after the Effective Date of this Order for payment of any expenses incurred with regard to the Receivership Property prior to the Effective Date; but notwithstanding the foregoing, the Receiver may pay such expenses, if any, which were incurred prior to the Effective Date as the Receiver deems reasonably necessary in the exercise of its business judgment;

(d) fourth, the balance of any such income and receipts shall be deposited by the Receiver in an account to be established by the Receiver at Lender, which funds in the Receiver's Account shall remain collateral for the Loans and Additional Loans in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and shall be paid to Lender, in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents; and

(e) last, if and after the Loans and Additional Loans have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, any remaining income or other receipts from the Receivership Property shall be disbursed as directed by further Order of this Court.

The compensation of the Receiver, as well as all fees and costs incurred by the Receiver and receivership costs and expenses, shall have administrative priority over all other claims.

15. If the Receiver determines at any time, and from time to time, that the amount of income and receipts then in the possession of the Receiver, or which the Receiver anticipates will be in the possession of the Receiver from the operation of Defendant's business, is insufficient to pay any expenses (with the exception of the Receiver's fees and the Receiver's expenses) described in this Order, then the Receiver shall promptly notify Lender of the amount of such deficit, whereupon Lender shall have the right, but not the obligation, to advance to the Receiver all or any portion of such deficit, and: (a) any such amount advanced by Lender shall be secured by the security title, security interest, lien and encumbrance of the Loan Documents; and (b) no such amount advanced by Lender shall render or shall be deemed to render Lender a mortgagee in possession of any real property owned by Defendant or otherwise subject Lender to any liability to Defendant under the Loan Documents or be considered a waiver of any default by Defendant under the Loan Documents or Lender's rights thereunder or otherwise. In no event shall the Receiver be obligated to advance its own funds for the satisfaction of such expenses.

16. The Receiver's initial report under Delaware Court of Chancery Rule 151 shall be due within forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date of this Order and shall include, as provided by the Delaware Court of Chancery Rules: (a) an inventory of all the estate, property and effects of the company and an appraisalment thereof to be made by appraisers to be appointed by the Court; (b) a list of the debtors and creditors of the company, showing all the debts due to and from the company, with the last-known post-office address or place of business of each debtor and creditor; and (3) a list of the stockholders of the company with the last-known post-office address or place of business.

17. The Receiver or its designee shall keep a true and accurate account of any and all receipts and expenditures and shall, so often as the Court directs, file with the Court such reports as the Court may require.

18. Within fifteen (15) days of the filing of the Receiver's Initial Report under Delaware Court of Chancery Rule 151, the Register of Chancery shall give notice to every known creditor of the Company as provided by Delaware Court of Chancery Rule 153.

19. All rents, issues, profits, revenues, income or other payments that are now or hereafter become due (hereinafter, collectively, the "Accounts") with respect to all or any portion of the Receivership Property whether pursuant to oral or written agreements shall be remitted by the account debtors directly to the Receiver. Notwithstanding Delaware Court of Chancery Rule 152, the Receiver is hereby authorized to deposit all proceeds of Receivership Property into a deposit account at First Niagara Bank, whether a newly created deposit account in the name of the Receiver or an All-American Hose deposit account retitled in the name of the Receiver.

20. The Receiver is authorized to serve with no bond.

21. No person or entity may file suit against the Receiver, in his capacity as the Receiver, unless otherwise authorized in advance by this Court.

22. The liability of the Receiver and his advisors, agents, representatives, employees, affiliates, successors and assigns (“Exculpation Parties”), for any and all claims, liabilities, damages, fees, costs, expenses and charges incurred or arising from their respective acts or omissions in connection with the Companies, this Order, the receivership established pursuant to this Order, and/or the receivership assets and receivership estate (“Related Matters”), shall exist only to the extent that this Court determines by a final and nonappealable judgment that such acts or omissions resulted solely from such person’s bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence. The Receiver shall be fully protected by the receivership estate from any action taken or suffered or omitted by the Receiver in reasonable reliance upon the advice of his advisors, except in the case of willful misconduct of the Receiver as determined by a final order of this Court. This paragraph shall survive the termination or resignation of Receiver, and the termination or suspension of the receivership. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Receiver shall be under no obligation to consult with his advisors and his good faith determination not to do so shall not result in the imposition of liability on the Receiver, including but not limited to any personal liability as an “employer” under any applicable law, unless such determination arises from the Receiver’s willful misconduct or fraud. This paragraph shall survive the termination or resignation of Receiver, and the termination or suspension of the receivership.

23. Except as set forth above, the Receiver shall have no personal liability for any liabilities arising out of or relating to Defendant or its businesses or the Receivership Property or the Receiver's management and operation thereof.

24. The Lender shall have no personal liability for any liabilities arising out of or relating to Defendant or its businesses or the Receivership Property or the Receiver's management and operation thereof.

25. The Receiver may, in its sole discretion, obtain liability insurance to protect itself in carrying out its duties hereunder with a policy limit acceptable to Lender, and the premium therefore shall be paid from the Receivership Property.

26. The Receiver and Lender, their employees and counsel are entitled to rely on all outstanding rules of law and Court Orders and shall not be liable to anyone for their own good faith compliance with any order, rule, law, judgment or decree. In no event shall the Receiver or Lender be liable to anyone for good faith compliance with their duties and responsibilities under applicable law, nor shall the Receiver, Lender or their employees, agents or advisors be liable to anyone for any actions taken or omitted by them, except upon a finding by this Court that they acted or failed to act as a result of intentional misconduct, bad faith and/or self-dealing or reckless disregard of their duties or this Order.

27. Upon review and approval of the adequacy of insurance coverage in place, the Receiver shall permit existing insurance coverage for the Receivership Property to remain in force until the expiration of the current paid up term under such policy or policies and shall notify the insurance carriers immediately of the appointment of the Receiver hereby and Complaint that the Receiver and Lender be added to the insurance policy or policies as an Additional Insured thereunder. Upon the expiration of the paid up portion of such policy or policies, the Receiver shall have the responsibility for keeping the Receivership Property insured in an amount the Receiver deems appropriate given the condition of the Receivership Property using its reasonable business judgment, and may as an option keep in force the existing insurance coverages or obtain new coverages for the Receivership Property, each of which coverages shall name the Receiver, in addition to Lender, as an Additional Insured thereunder.

28. Defendant, its directors, managers, members, partners, officers, agents, employees or other representatives, as the case may be, under this Order are hereby directed to use their best efforts to ensure a smooth transition of the operation of the Receivership Property to the Receiver or its designee, and Defendant shall cooperate with the Receiver or its designee in consummating such transition and the Receiver, its directors, managers, members, partners, officers, agents, employees or other representatives, as the case may be, shall have the reciprocal duty and obligation with respect to the Non-Receivership Property.

29. Except as provided herein with respect to the Non-Receivership Property or with any other obligation or liability for which Defendant, its directors, managers, members, partners, officers or employees remains responsible or liable, Defendant, its directors, managers, members, partners, officers, agents, employees or other representatives, as the case may be, are hereby enjoined from interfering in any manner with the Receiver or its management of the Receivership Property, with regard to the ordinary course of Defendant's business and other actions authorized by this Order, including but not limited to the liquidation and/or sale of the Receivership Property.

30. The Receiver shall not be bound or personally liable for any or all contracts, agreements, understandings or other commitments Defendant had, or may have with third parties with respect to Defendant's business operations or the Receivership Property, whether oral or written. The Receiver may, by an affirmative written ratification executed by the Receiver, agree to become bound to any such contracts, agreements, understandings or other commitments or may agree to enter into any new or amended contracts, agreements, understandings or other commitments. Nothing in this Order constitutes or shall be construed to constitute an assumption of any of the leases, contracts or agreements currently existing with respect to Defendant's business operations of the Receivership Property by the Receiver or a waiver by the Receiver of any default under any such lease, contract or agreement.

31. Except as provided herein with respect to the Non-Receivership Property or any other obligation or liability for which Defendant, its directors, managers, members, partners, officers or employees remains responsible or liable, Defendant, its directors, managers, members, partners, creditors, landlords, accounts payable creditors, secured or unsecured lenders, lessors and other persons, and all others acting on behalf of any such person, including sheriffs, marshals, other officers, deputies, servants, agents, employees and attorneys, are, without first obtaining leave of this Court with prior written notice to the Receiver, Defendant and Lender and their respective counsel, enjoined from:

- a. Commencing, prosecuting, continuing or enforcing any suit or proceeding in law, equity, or otherwise against or affecting any of the Receivership Property, except that such actions may be filed to toll any statutes of limitations;
- b. Using self-help or executing or issuing or causing the execution or issuance of any court attachment, subpoena, replevin, execution, or other process for the purpose of impounding or taking possession of or interfering with or creating or enforcing a lien upon any portion of the Receivership Property, wherever situated;
- c. Attempting to modify, cancel, terminate, call, extinguish, revoke or accelerate the due date of any lease, loan, mortgage, indebtedness, security agreement or any document otherwise affecting the Receivership Property, except that the Receiver and Lender may enter into any additional agreements or Loan Documents which Lender may require as a condition to the extension of additional credit or the making of the Additional Loans;

d. Doing any act to interfere with the taking control, possession, or management, by the Receiver, of any portion of the Receivership Property or to interfere in any manner with the jurisdiction of this Court over the Receivership Property;

e. Engaging in any act to create, perfect, or enforce any lien against the Receivership Property;

f. Engaging in any act to collect, assess, or recover a claim against the Receivership Property that arose before the appointment of the Receiver; and

g. Exercising a set off of any debt owing to Defendant that arose before the appointment of the Receiver against any claim against Defendant related to the Receivership Property.

32. Lender or the Receiver may seek to terminate the receivership authorized and created hereby at any time by filing with the Court a Motion to Terminate Appointment of Receiver. Upon hearing and determination of this Court that the purposes of this receivership having been served or for other reasonable grounds, this Court may terminate the receivership.

33. Upon the Effective Date, the Receiver shall immediately serve a copy of this Order upon Defendant.

34. The Receiver is authorized to continue, preserve, apply for new authority and otherwise keep in place any and all governmental licenses, permits and other authority used for the operation of Defendant's businesses. In no event shall Defendant or its officers, directors, shareholders, members or employees be liable if the Receiver fails to maintain or acquire any necessary governmental licenses, permits or other authority for the operation of the Defendant's businesses.

35. The Receiver may make such arrangements as are in conformance with law for the continuation of the hiring of existing employees, if any, either by continuing them as employees of their present entity employer by paying when due all wages, salaries, fringe benefits, withholding taxes, unemployment taxes and other incidents of employment in the name of such employment entity or, in the Receiver's discretion, by employing such persons as employees of the Receiver or otherwise as the Receiver may determine, with the same power to hire and fire employees as was previously held by their previous employer. Notwithstanding the above, absent further Order of this court, the Receiver is not authorized to pay any severance or termination charges connected with any pre-receivership employment agreements of the Defendant.

36. Neither the Receiver nor Lender shall have any personal liability for any environmental liabilities arising out of or relating to Defendant or Defendant's businesses or the Receivership Property.

37. Neither the Receiver nor Lender shall have the right to file any local, state or federal tax returns on behalf of any of Defendant or shall have any obligations or duties with respect to the personal liability or affairs of Defendant. Defendant shall be responsible for managing its tax issues. Receiver shall cooperate with Defendant to insure that all tax obligations are paid in the ordinary course of Defendant's business and shall cooperate with Defendant to permit Defendant to file all necessary and appropriate tax documents. Receiver shall insure that any trust fund taxes accruing after the Effective Date are collected, segregated and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority in a timely fashion. Any and all employment or trust fund type taxes incurred after the Effective Date shall be paid before paying any other expenses or costs of Defendant's business. Notwithstanding any provision of this Order to the contrary, the Defendant shall have the exclusive power and authority to prepare and file all federal, state, and local income tax returns.

38. Notwithstanding any provision in this Order to the contrary, the Citation Jet shall not constitute Receivership Property and the Receiver shall not interfere with Defendant's use, sale or any other disposition of the Citation Jet or the proceeds thereof.

39. The Receiver shall have no liability with respect to its duties hereunder except for the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Receiver, its employees, or agents. The Receiver's liability as a receiver hereunder shall be limited to the assets of the Receiver, and no other partner, director, officer, employee or agent of the Receiver shall have any personal liability hereunder.

40. Notwithstanding any provision of this Order to the contrary, nothing herein shall effect, impair or infringe upon Defendant's or its officers, directors, shareholders, members or employees or any other party that is insured from making any claim or receiving any benefit from any liability, fidelity, errors and omissions, directors and officers liability, or other fiduciary type policies of insurance and any proceeds thereof (collectively, the "Fiduciary Policies"). For the avoidance of doubt, any Fiduciary Policies will not be Receivership Property and will not be part of the Receivership estate; provided that Receiver may request to be added to such applicable insurance policies, as an additional covered party.

41. The Court shall retain jurisdiction and supervision of all matters concerning the Receiver, the receivership created hereby and the Receivership Property.

42. This Order shall be subject to such further orders as the circumstances and equities may require.

43. This Order shall be effective as of ____ a.m. on _____, 2015 (the "Effective Date"). The Receiver's rights and duties with respect to the Receivership Property and as receiver granted pursuant to this Order shall cease and terminate, in the absence of a further Order of the Court, upon the earlier to occur of: (a) transfer and/or liquidation of all or substantially all of the assets of Defendant; and (b) agreement among Defendant and Lender to terminate the Receiver.

44. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of this Court, and this Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes.

Trademark Assignment Agreement

This Trademark Assignment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, 2016 by and between All-American Hose LLC (the "Assignor"), and All-American Hose Acquisitions LLC, a Limited Liability Company (the Assignee") located at 217 Titusville Road, Union City, PA 16438.

1. Marks. The term "Marks" as used in this Agreement shall mean any registered and unregistered trademarks, service marks, logos, designs, trade names, domain names, package designs, and product designs, including but not limited to all registrations and/or registration application rights and all rights to prepare derivative marks, together with all the goodwill of the business symbolized thereby, and all other rights in the United States and in all countries and territories worldwide and under an international convention (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Marks") identified in Exhibit A.

2. Assignment. Assignor hereby irrevocably assigns, grants, and transfers to Assignee all rights, title, and interest in and to the Marks in perpetuity. Assignor further authorizes the United States Patent and Trademark Office and all other agencies in jurisdictions outside the United States to record the transfer of the registration. After the Effective Date, Assignor agrees to make no further use of the Marks or any confusingly similar marks in the United States and anywhere in the world, except as may be expressly authorized by the parties in writing. Assignor further agrees to not challenge Assignee's use or ownership of the Marks.

3. Consideration. Assignee shall pay Assignor the sum of $10.00 payable on _____, 2016 in consideration for assignment of the Marks.

4. Execution and Delivery. After Assignee pays the amount due, Assignor shall execute and deliver to Assignee any and all instruments of sale, transfer, conveyance, assignment, and confirmations as Assignee may lawfully request in order to obtain, perfect, maintain, or otherwise enable the transfer, conveyance, and assignment to Assignee and to confirm Assignee's title to the Marks and any and all related federal and state trademark registrations and/or registration application rights.

5. Legal Fees. If either party, any heir, personal representative, successor, or assign of either party hereto enforce this Agreement through litigation, the prevailing party shall be liable for reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred by the other party in connection with such litigation, including, but not limited to, any appeals.

6. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Assignor and Assignee and supersedes all prior understandings of Assignor and Assignee, including any prior representation, statement, condition, or warranty.

7. Modification and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written agreement signed by both of the parties. Neither party will be charged with any waiver of any provision of this Agreement, unless such waiver is evidenced by a writing signed by the party and any such waiver will be limited to the terms of such writing.

8. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, the remaining provisions shall not be affected and shall continue to be valid and enforceable as though the invalid or unenforceable parts had not yet been included in this Agreement.

9. Jurisdiction. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflict of laws. Each party consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in the State of Delaware for any legal action, suit or proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.
