Cody Youngbull, Ph.D.

Dear Dr. Youngbull

On behalf of the School Earth and Space Exploration and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, we are pleased to offer you a [redacted] as [redacted] at a salary [redacted] for the 2013-2014 fiscal year which will begin July 1, 2013. This position is not funded from state appropriations and may terminate when funding is no longer available. Fixed-term and temporary appointments have no tenure implications and do not accrue time towards sabbatical leaves. In this position, you will be responsible to the director of the School Earth and Space Exploration who will determine your workload and responsibilities.

By accepting this appointment, you agree to comply with the rules and regulations of the University, including those in the Academic Affairs Manual (commonly known as the ACD Manual), and the Arizona Board of Regents relating to your appointment, including the Conditions of Faculty Service, the provisions of Standards of Professional Conduct for Faculty Members and Academic Professionals, the Code of Ethics, and the Arizona Board of Regents Intellectual Property Policy. These documents are available online at <http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/index.html> and <http://www.azregents.edu/policymanual/default.aspx>. In addition, upon your acceptance of this appointment, you hereby assign to the Arizona Board of Regents for and on behalf of Arizona State University, all right, title, and interest in and to intellectual property created or invented by you in which the Arizona Board of Regents claims an ownership interest under its Intellectual Property Policy.

Sincerely,

Kip Hodges, Director
School Earth and Space Exploration

Ferran Garcia-Pichel, Dean of Natural Sciences
College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

6-908 Intellectual Property Policy

The Arizona Board of Regents, and the three universities which the Board governs, are all dedicated to teaching, research, and extension of knowledge to the public. The university community recognizes its responsibility to produce and disseminate knowledge. Inherent in this responsibility is the need to encourage the production of creative and scholarly works and the development of new and useful materials, devices, processes, and other intellectual property, some of which may have potential commercial value. These activities contribute to the professional development of the individuals involved, enhance the reputation of the university in which they work, provide additional educational opportunities for participating students, and promote the public welfare.

- A. Ownership of Intellectual Property.
 - 1. Ownership by the Board:
