1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

In this Deed, the following terms have the following meanings.

Assigned Rights means all of the following rights subsisting in the world to the extent arising from the Inventor's inventive contribution to the Invention:

- (a) all rights in the Invention and the Applications;
- (b) any rights to file any Corresponding Application and any rights arising from any such filing;

- (h) any additional rights outlined in item 4 of the Schedule.

Corresponding Application means an application anywhere in the world for a patent made in respect of the Invention or any other invention described in the Applications and includes an application which claims priority from the Applications such as an application made under the Patent Cooperation Treaty, an application made under the Paris Convention, or a complete or non-provisional application.

Related Application means any application based on any Corresponding Application such as a divisional application, a continuation application or a continuation-in-part application.

Residual Interest means any part of the right, title and interest whatsoever and wherever subsisting in the world in the Applications and the Invention which has not been acquired by the Assignee as at the date of this Deed.
