Intellectual Property Contribution and Assignment Agreement

This Intellectual Property Contribution and Assignment Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made as of June 12, 2020 by and between KlausTech, Inc. a Nevada corporation (the “Assignor”), and KlausTech LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (the “LLC”).

1. Intellectual Property Assignment. Assignor does hereby assign, transfer, and convey to the LLC, its successors and assigns, for good and sufficient consideration the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, in connection with execution of the Operating Agreement of the LLC, the entire right, title, and interest that exist today and/or may exist in the future in and to any and all of the following:

(a) any and all Intellectual Property (as defined below);

(b) any and all Intellectual Property Rights (as defined below); and

(c) any and all causes of action (whether known or unknown or whether currently pending, filed, or otherwise) and other enforcement rights under, or on account of, any of the Intellectual Property and/or Intellectual Property Rights, including, without limitation, all causes of action for past, current, or future infringement and other enforcement rights for (i) damages, (ii) injunctive relief, and/or (iii) any other remedies; and all rights to collect royalties and other payments under or on account of any of the Intellectual Property and/or Intellectual Property Rights.

Assignor hereby authorizes the respective patent office or governmental agency in each jurisdiction to issue any and all patents, certificates of invention, utility models or other governmental grants or issuances that may be granted upon any of the Intellectual Property and/or Intellectual Property Rights in the name of the LLC, as the assignee to the entire interest therein.

2. Intellectual Property Definition. “Intellectual Property” means any and all intellectual property and tangible embodiments thereof, including without limitation inventions, discoveries, designs, specifications, developments, methods, modifications, improvements, processes, know-how, show-how, techniques, algorithms, databases, computer software and code (including software and firmware listings, assemblers, applets, compilers, source code, object code, net lists, design tools, user interfaces, application programming interfaces, protocols, formats, documentation, annotations, comments, data, data structures, databases, data collections, system build software and instructions), patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade names, mask works, formulae, techniques, supplier and customer lists, trade secrets, graphics or images, text, audio or visual works, materials that document design or design processes, or that document research or testing, schematics, diagrams, product specifications and other works of authorship.

For the avoidance of any doubt, the term “Intellectual Property” includes, without limitation: (a) all right, title interest in and to U.S. Patent Nos. 6,128,651; 6,161,127; and 6,584,492 (the “Patents”):

(b) all patents and patent applications (i) to which any of the Patents directly or indirectly claims priority, and (ii) for which any of the Patents directly or indirectly forms a basis of priority;

(c) all reissues, reexaminations, extensions, continuations, continuations in part, continuing prosecution applications, requests for continuing examinations, divisions, registrations of any item in any of the Patents or the foregoing category (b);

(d) all foreign counterpart patents and foreign counterpart patent applications that are related to the Patents or any item in any of the foregoing categories (b) through (c), including without limitations, certifications of invention, utility models, industrial design protection, design patent protection, and other governmental grants or issuances;

(e) all items in any of the foregoing categories (b) through (d), whether or not expressly listed as one of the Patents and whether or not claims in any of the foregoing have been rejected, withdrawn, cancelled, or the like;

(f) all inventions, invention disclosures, and discoveries described in any of the Patents or in any of the foregoing categories (b) through (e) and all other rights arising out of such inventions, invention disclosures, and discoveries.

3. Intellectual Property Rights Definition. “Intellectual Property Rights” means, collectively, all rights in, to and under patents, trade secret rights, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, trade dress and similar rights of any type under the laws of any governmental authority, including without limitation, all applications and registrations relating to the foregoing Intellectual Property, including all rights to apply in any or all countries of the world for patents, certificates of invention, utility models, industrial design protections, design patent protections, or other governmental grants or issuances of any type arising from any of the Intellectual Property or Intellectual Property Rights, including, without limitation, under the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property, the International Patent Cooperation Treaty, or any other convention, treaty, agreement, or understanding.

4. Prior Inventions. Assignor represents and warrants that the items assigned in Section 1 above represent all the Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights owned by Assignor, and there are no other Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights which are not being assigned to the LLC.

5. Further Assurances. Assignor agrees to execute and deliver Assignments of Patents and patent applications for recording with the US Patent and Trademark Office. Assignor agrees to execute any and all papers and documents, and take such other actions as are reasonably requested by the LLC, to evidence, perfect, defend the foregoing assignment and fully implement the LLC's proprietary rights in the subject matter assigned hereunder, such as obtaining and enforcing copyrights, patents or trademarks and to fully cooperate in the prosecution, enforcement and defense of such proprietary rights. Assignor further agrees that if the LLC is unable, for any reason, to secure signatures to apply for or to pursue any application for any patent, copyright, trademark or other proprietary right covering any Intellectual Property assigned to the LLC above, then Assignor hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the LLC its duly authorized officers and agents as Assignor's agent and attorney-in-fact, to act for and in Assignor's behalf and stead to execute and file any such applications and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the prosecution and issuance of patents, copyrights, trademarks and other registrations thereon with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Assignor.

6. Representations and Covenants. Assignor represents and warrants that (i) Assignor is the owner of the entire right, title and interest in and to the Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights, (ii) Assignor has the sole right and authority to enter into this Agreement and grant the rights hereunder, (iii) Assignor has not previously granted any rights or licenses in the Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights, (iv) Assignor does not own or have the right to license any other Intellectual Property that is related to the conduct of the LLC's proposed business, (v) Assignor is not obligated under any consulting agreement, or other agreement or obligation that conflicts with, or would prevent Assignor from fully performing Assignor's obligations under, this Agreement; and (vi) the performance of Assignor's duties under this Agreement and Assignor's duties to the LLC will not breach, or constitute a default under, any agreement to which Assignor is bound.

7. Governing Law. This Agreement and actions taken hereunder shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada applied without regard to conflict of law principles.

8. Miscellaneous. This Agreement, including the exhibits, schedules, and other documents and instruments referred to herein, embodies the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter contained herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to such subject matter. If any one or more provisions contained in this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein. The terms and provisions of this Agreement may be modified or amended only by written agreement executed by all parties hereto.
