The number of class "A" shares shall be unlimited and the consideration, added to the stated capital account maintained for these shares, shall also be unlimited.

1.2. VOTING RIGHT

Subject to the specific provisions of the Act, holders of class "A" shares shall be entitled to receive notice of any meeting of the shareholders of the corporation, to attend such meeting and to vote thereat, except at meetings where the right to vote is restricted to the holders of another class of shares, and each class "A" share shall confer unto each holder thereof one (1) vote.

1 st rank(pari passu)	Class "F"
1 st rank(pari passu)	Class "G"

If the provisions of the Act prevent it from paying the full redemption price to a shareholder or to a former shareholder within the time frame specified above, the corporation shall pay a first instalment of the retraction price within the thirty (30) day time limit, provided that it may legally do so, and it shall pay any unpaid balance as soon as it shall be legally able to do so. The corporation must provide the shareholder in question evidence of its indebtedness toward said shareholder. If only part of the shareholder's issued and outstanding shares is being retracted and redeemed, the corporation shall, without charge, issue to the shareholder in question a new certificate representing his or her shares which have not been retracted and redeemed.

SECTION 4 - REDEMPTION OF SHARES AT THE CORPORATION'S OPTION

If the corporation wishes to exercise its unilateral redemption right under Part I relating to any class of shares, it shall, at least ten (10) days prior to the date scheduled for such redemption, provide notice in writing of its intention to any holder of shares whose shares are to be redeemed and who is registered in the corporate records book on the day when the notice is sent. Such notice shall be sent by registered or certified mail to each shareholder so registered whose shares are to be redeemed, at his or her last-known address indicated in the corporate records book. The accidental failure or involuntary omission to give such notice to any shareholder shall not void the redemption with respect to the shares of any other shareholder who shall have received such notice.

If the corporation proceeds to effect a partial redemption, this redemption shall be carried out proportionally to the number of issued and outstanding shares of the particular being redeemed, regardless of fractional shares. If only part of the shareholder's issued and outstanding shares is being redeemed, the corporation shall, without charge, issue to the shareholder in question a new certificate representing his or her shares which have not been redeemed. However, the shares to be redeemed may be chosen in any other manner, with the unanimous consent of the holders of all the outstanding shares of that class at the time.

The aforementioned notice shall specify the price per share at which the redemption shall take place, the redemption date and the number of shares which are to be redeemed. The notice shall also indicate to any shareholder the date, the time and the place as well as the procedure to be followed for the surrender of the certificate or certificates representing the shares which are to be redeemed and for the payment of the redemption price.

From the date of such unilateral redemption, the holders of the shares in question cease to benefit from the rights attached to such shares, except the right to receive the redemption price.

If the holders of the shares subject to unilateral redemption fail to surrender the certificate or certificates representing the shares which are to be redeemed in accordance with the aforementioned provisions, the corporation then has the right to deposit the redemption price of such shares in a special account with a recognized Canadian financial institution, notice of which shall be given to the registered holders, and the redemption price so deposited is paid without interest to such holders upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares to the financial institution. Following such deposit, the shares are deemed to have been redeemed and the rights of their holders are limited to receiving from the depositary the redemption price of such shares, without interest, upon surrender of the relevant certificate or certificates.

SECTION 5 - REDEMPTION OF SHARES BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT

In accordance with the provisions of the Act and subject to Section 2 above, the corporation may at any time, at its discretion and without giving notice or taking into account other classes of shares, purchase or otherwise acquire by mutual agreement any issued and outstanding shares of its share capital. However, in accordance with Part I, when the rights attached to the shares being purchased by mutual agreement allow the holders thereof to retract or the corporation to redeem such shares, the corporation and the holder of such shares may not agree on a purchase price greater than the price fixed for the redemption of such shares.

SECTION 6 - CANCELLATION OF REDEEMED OR RETRACTED SHARES

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, shares retracted by the shareholder and redeemed by the corporation shall be automatically cancelled at the date of their retraction and redemption and the corporation shall reduce accordingly the stated capital account maintained for the shares of the appropriate class.

SECTION 7 - ADMINISTRATIVE REASSESSMENT

If an authority having jurisdiction issues an income tax assessment, after the issuance of a share, on the grounds that the fair market value of the property received by the corporation for the issuance of said share differs from the fair market value agreed upon between the corporation and the shareholder at the time of issuance, then the price of issuance, the retraction or the redemption value, as the case may be, of the share shall be readjusted ipso facto and nunc pro tunc, subject, however, to the right to have the final determination of the adjustment made by the courts pursuant to a contestation of the assessment and, provided that in the event of a difference between the federal and provincial assessments, the abovementioned adjustment shall be made on the basis of the lesser of the amounts established by an uncontested assessment or by a final judgment, as the case may be.

If, prior to determining the adjusted redemption value, the corporation has redeemed one or more of such shares, then the corporation must pay the holder of the redeemed shares an amount equal to the difference between the adjusted redemption value and the original redemption value, if the latter is less than the former. Conversely, the holder of the redeemed shares must, if applicable, repay any amount in excess of the adjusted redemption value he may have received from the corporation.

SECTION 8 - FAIR MARKET VALUE ASSESSMENT

The fair market value of a share on the date of exercise of a right to retract or redeem shares is established by mutual agreement between the holders of the shares in question and the corporation. Said shareholders and the corporation must determine the fair market value using fair and reasonable means that reflects their true intention to transact at fair market value. In the event of disagreement as to the fair market value of the shares, the holders of the shares in question and the corporation must appoint an independent professional valuator, by mutual agreement, to determine the fair market value of such shares. The professional valuator's fees are borne equally by the holders of the shares in question and the corporation.
