Said right, title and interest include the right to file the abovementioned application; title to the invention(s) therein described and/or claimed; the right to sue for infringement or past infringement; the right to collect royalties and/or damages; the right to claim priority from the abovementioned application; the right to file applications for patents, designs and utility models anywhere in the world in relation to the invention(s), including, but not limited to, the right to file continuations, divisionals, reissues and reexaminations, and to have patents, designs and utility models which may issue therefrom made out in the name of Assignees, its successors and assigns; and the right to further assign a part of or all of said right, title and interest. To the extent that any such right, title and interest in said invention(s) or the abovementioned application still vest in Assignors, these are hereby assigned to Assignees in their entirety.

Assignors authorize Assignees, or anyone it may properly designate, to insert in this instrument the filing date and application number of the application if not known at the time this instrument was signed.
