22. Ownership Of Inventions and Intellectual Property. Individual shall disclose fully, promptly, and in writing to Company any and all inventions, discoveries, improvements, modifications and other intellectual property rights, whether or not patentable and/or copyrightable, as the case may be, which Individual has conceived, made or developed, solely or jointly with others, which (i) relate to the current or contemplated business, work or activities of the Company; (ii) result from or are suggested by the performance of Individual's duties hereunder or from or by any information that Individual may, directly or indirectly, receive while employed by Company; (iii) result from the use of the Company's time, materials, facilities or resources of any nature; or (iv) relate to the Company's juvenile product business (collectively hereinafter "Intellectual Property Rights"). Individual agrees that such Intellectual Property Rights shall be the sole and exclusive property of Company and that any and all copyrights covering Individual's Intellectual Property Rights shall belong solely to the Company and, in any event, Individual hereby assigns, transfers and conveys to the Company all of Individual's right, title and interest in and to any and all such Intellectual Property Rights, including, but not limited to, patents and copyrights.

Individual further agrees to take all such actions as may be requested by Company at any time and from time to time to confirm or evidence the assignment, transfer and conveyance of such. Furthermore, at any time and from time to time, upon the request of Company, Individual shall execute and deliver to Company any and all instruments, documents and papers, provide evidence and do any and all other acts that, in the opinion of Company, are or may be necessary or desirable to document such assignment, transfer and conveyance or to enable Company to file and prosecute applications for and to acquire, maintain and enforce any and all patents, trademark registrations or copyrights under United States or foreign law with respect to any Intellectual Property Rights or to obtain any extension, validation, reissue, continuance or renewal of any such patent, trademark, or copyright. The Company shall be responsible for the preparation of any such instruments, documents and papers and for the prosecution of any such proceedings and shall reimburse Individual for all reasonable expenses incurred by Individual in compliance with the provisions of this Paragraph.

WARNING:
Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.
