General terms

1 Interpretation

1.1 Definitions

These meanings apply unless the contrary intention appears:

Effective Date means the date on which this deed is executed by both parties.

Patents means:

- (a) the registered Patents set out in the Schedule;
- (b) the applications for patents set out in the Schedule; and
- (c) all other patents or patent applications in any country which may be lodged claiming priority, either directly or indirectly, from the patents and patent applications set out in the schedule.

2 Assignment

The Assignor, as legal and beneficial owner, assigns to the Assignee all its right, title and interest in and to the Patents, including:

- (a) the inventions the subject of the Patents; and
- (b) any patents which may subsequently be obtained in respect of the inventions the subject of the Patents, in the jurisdiction specified in the schedule, including all accrued rights of action involving the Patents, with effect from the Effective Date.

3 Further assurances

Each party agrees, at its own expense, to do anything reasonably requested by the other party (such as signing and producing documents) as may be necessary or desirable to give full effect to the provisions of this deed and the transactions contemplated by it.

4 Governing law

This deed is governed by the law in force in the place specified in the section of this deed headed "Details". Each party submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that place.

5 Counterparts

This deed may consist of a number of copies, each signed by one or more parties to the deed. If so, the signed copies are treated as making up the one document.
