PATENT ASSIGNMENT

Jorge E. Lopez de Cardenas and Timothy A. Andrzejak, both of Sugar Land, Texas (hereinafter referred to as Assignors) have invented certain new and useful improvements in OILFIELD PERFORATING SELF-POSITIONING SYSTEMS AND METHODS for which U.S. provisional patent application 63/076,670 was filed on September 10, 2020.

ResEnTech, LLC, of 4503 Cambridge Court, Sugar Land, Texas 77479 (hereinafter referred to as Assignee) desires to acquire Assignors' entire right, title, and interest in and to the provisional patent application and the right to claim priority thereto.

For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Assignors hereby assign unto Assignee their entire right, title, and interest in and to (a) the invention in the United States and in all foreign countries, (b) the provisional patent application, (c) all patent applications claiming priority directly or indirectly from the provisional patent application including the right to claim the benefits of the International Convention; and (d) all patents that may be granted on any of the foregoing in the United States and in all foreign countries.

Assignors authorize and request the patent office officials in the United States and in all foreign countries to issue all of the patents, when granted, to Assignee as the owner of the entire right, title, and interest in and to the same.

Assignors agree to communicate to Assignee or its representatives all facts known to Assignors respecting the invention; to testify in all legal proceedings; to sign all documents; to execute all non-provisional, divisional, continuation, continuation-in-part, reissue, reexamination, substitution, renewal, and extension applications; to execute all necessary assignment documents to cause all of the patents to be issued to Assignee, to make all rightful oaths, and generally to do everything possible to aid Assignee, its successors and assigns, to obtain and enforce proper protection for the invention in the United States and in all foreign countries.
