- B. Venlo Holdings is the sole shareholder of the Assignee and has agreed to sell all of its shares in the Assignee pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement.
- C. To the extent that they have not already vested in the Assignee by operation of law or otherwise, the Assignors wish to assign all of their rights, title and interest in the Business Intellectual Property to the Assignee, to confirm and to secure to the Assignee its ownership of the Business Intellectual Property, on the terms and conditions of this Deed.

Operative provisions

1. Definitions and interpretation

Definitions

1.1 In this Deed, unless the context requires another meaning:

Business means the business activities of designing and distributing products and equipment for the outdoor adventure market (including offroad, 4x4 automotive touring, outdoor, camping and caravanning markets), including vehicle recovery boards, levelling ramps, ropes, storage and mounting accessories, hitch products, filtration and power solutions, by the Assignee, which the Assignee engages in, or is developing (or engaging others to develop) product to commence engagement in, as at the date of this Deed.

Business Intellectual Property means any Intellectual Property, the Registered IP, and all Works, documents, information, technology, including business processes, Software and hardware, websites, or other materials created directly or indirectly for the Assignee at any time, which:

- a) describe or relate to the Business;
- b) were created in contemplation of the establishment or development of the Business;
- c) were otherwise used, or created for use, in connection with the Business, or
- d) relate to, describe or are used (or have previously been, or are intended to be, used) in connection with, any product, method or process that the Business has Exploited, currently Exploits, or intends to Exploit, together with any rights to use Intellectual Property relating to these materials

Deed means this deed, including any Schedules and Annexures.

Effective Date means the date on which the last party executes this Deed.

Exploit includes:

- (a) in relation to a product: make, hire, sell or otherwise dispose of the product, offer to make, sell, hire or otherwise dispose of it, use or import it, or keep it for the purpose of doing any of those things; and
- (b) in relation to a method or process: use the method or process or do any act in paragraph (a) in respect of a product resulting from such use.

Intellectual Property means any:

- a) Patents;
- b) Trade Marks;
- c) internet domain names;
- d) business names;
- e) copyrights, copyright registrations, renewals and applications for copyright registrations, and mask works;
- f) designs;
- g) Software and databases;
- h) Know-How;
- i) rights of privacy and publicity, including but not limited to, the names, likenesses, voices and biographical information of real persons; and
- j) any other intellectual property rights, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all applications (or rights to apply) for, and renewals or extensions of, such rights and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection which subsist or will subsist now or in the future or in any part of the world.

Know-How means any unpatented technical information that is not in the public domain including, without limitation, any of the following information (whether or not related to inventions): knowledge, methods, processes or techniques, discoveries, ideas, inventions, trade secrets, concepts, formulae, data, diagrams, designs, drawings, images, specifications, methodologies, models, research, development and testing procedures, the results of experiments, tests and trials, manufacturing processes, techniques and specifications, quality control data, analyses, reports, submissions and Works.

Moral Rights means without limitation any rights subsisting under Part IX of the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth), including rights contemplated by Articles 6bis and 14ter of the Berne Convention and any rights under existing or future law in the nature of moral rights, wherever existing in the world.

Patents means patents and patent applications, and all provisional and priority rights, continuations, reissues, divisionals, disclosures, and foreign counterparts relating thereto, industrial designs, industrial design registrations, certificates of invention, utility models and any other rights to inventions.

Registered IP means:

- a) the Patents, registered designs and design applications, set out in Schedule 1, and all provisional and priority rights, continuations, reissues, divisionals, disclosures, and foreign counterparts relating thereto;
- b) the Trade Marks set out in Schedule 1 and all priority rights and foreign counterparts thereto; and
- c) the business names set out in Schedule 1.

Security Interest means a right, interest, power or arrangement in relation to an asset which provides security for, or protects against default by, a person for the payment or satisfaction of a debt, obligation or liability including, without limitation, a mortgage or charge.

Share Purchase Agreement means the agreement entered into, or to be entered into, as between Simpson Aluminium Pty Ltd, Clarus Corporation and Venlo Holdings, pursuant to which Venlo Holdings has agreed to sell, and Simpson Aluminium has agreed to buy the shares in the capital of the Assignee.

Software means software including associated user manuals, object code and source code and other materials sufficient to enable a reasonably skilled programmer to maintain and modify the software and firmware.

Trade Marks means trade marks, service marks, and trade mark or service mark registrations and applications, trade names, trade dress, fictitious names, assumed names, logos, slogans, and general intangibles of like nature, together with all goodwill related to the foregoing.

Third Party Interest means any Security Interest, licence, option, covenant, notification, restriction, interest under any agreement, interest under any trust, or other right, equity, entitlement or other interest of any nature held by a third party.

Work means any work, material, design, drawing, logo, computer program, methodology, algorithm, application, data, language or other programming in whatever form created, developed or otherwise owned by each Assignor (whether individually or jointly with others) in relation to the Business.

Interpretation

1.2 In this Deed, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) a reference to:

- (i) the singular includes the plural and the other way round;
- (ii) a gender includes all genders;
- (iii) a document (including this Deed) is a reference to that document (including any Schedules and Annexures) as amended, consolidated, supplemented, novated or replaced;
- (iv) a person (including a party) includes
 - (A) an individual, company, other body corporate, association, partnership, firm, joint venture, trust or government agency; and
 - (B) the person's successors, permitted assigns, substitutes, executors and administrators;
- (v) a law is a reference to that law as amended, consolidated, supplemented or replaced;
- (b) headings are for convenience only and are ignored in interpreting this Deed;
- (c) a warranty, representation, covenant or obligation given or entered into by more than one person binds them jointly and severally; and
- (d) the words "including" or "includes" mean "including but not limited to" or "including without limitation".

2. Assignment

- 2.1 To the extent that any rights in the Business Intellectual Property have not already vested in the Assignee by operation of law or otherwise, on and from the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, each of the Assignors assigns to the Assignee free from all encumbrances absolutely all of its right, title and interest worldwide in and to the Business Intellectual Property.

3. Nature of assignment

- 3.1 The assignments the subject of this Deed include the right to take action and obtain relief (including to be paid all amounts recovered in any action whether as damages, following an account of profits or on any other basis) in relation to infringements or misuse of the Business Intellectual Property occurring on or before the Effective Date.

4. Business Know-How

- 4.1 As soon as possible after the execution of this Deed, and by no later than 14 days after the Effective Date, to the extent that they have not already done so, the Assignors will disclose to the Assignee all Know-How relating to, created for or used in connection with the Business (Business Know-How).
- 4.2 The Assignors will keep confidential all Business Know-How and must not:
- (a) publish or disclose the Business Know-How, or any part of it, to any third party; or

- (b) use or modify Business Know-How, or permit or allow any third party to use or modify Business Know How, except with the prior written permission of the Assignee or when required to do so by law or any regulatory authority.

5. Moral Rights

- 5.1 To the full extent permitted by law, each of the Assignors must, and must procure that all relevant authors, absolutely and irrevocably:

- (a) consent to any act or omission by or on behalf of the Assignee or its successors in title, assigns, licensees, directors, officers, agents or employees which might otherwise constitute a breach or an infringement of any Moral Right in a Work that forms part of the Business Intellectual Property or is assigned to the Assignee under this Agreement, whether occurring before or after the consent is given; and

- (b) waive each Moral Right in any such Work.

- 5.2 To the extent that the above consent or waiver does not operate as an immediate consent in relation to or waiver of these rights, each of the Assignors unconditionally and irrevocably agrees to procure a written consent and waiver at any time at the Assignee's request, in accordance with clause 5.1.

6. Infringement proceedings and challenges to Business Intellectual Property

- 6.1 From the Effective Date until the Assignee is registered as the owner of the Business Intellectual Property:

- (a) the Assignor(s) must, at the Assignee's request, commence proceedings for infringement of the Business Intellectual Property if the Assignee considers that this is reasonably necessary to protect its interests in the Business Intellectual Property. At the request of the Assignor(s), the Assignee will give that Assignor(s) all reasonable assistance in relation to these proceedings;
- (b) the Assignee will bear the reasonable legal costs of any proceedings for infringement of the Business Intellectual Property and will be entitled to retain all sums recovered in any such proceedings, including damages, settlement amounts and costs, for its own account;
- (c) the Assignor(s) will not make any admissions or reach any settlement in relation to any proceedings in relation to the Business Intellectual Property without the prior written consent of the Assignee;
- (d) the Assignor(s) will keep the Assignee fully informed of the progress of, and all material developments in relation to any proceedings regarding the Business Intellectual Property and will provide the Assignee as soon as reasonably practicable with copies of all material information and correspondence relating to the proceedings; and
- (e) the Assignee will be substituted for the Assignor(s) as the applicant to any proceedings for infringement of the Business Intellectual Property as soon as the Assignee becomes the registered owner of the Business Intellectual Property that is the subject of the proceedings.

- 6.2 In the event that any registration of or application for the Business Intellectual Property is challenged, or the validity of any registered IP (whether granted now or in the future) is challenged or opposed on any ground on which the Assignors have or can provide evidence, information or advice which may assist in responding to such challenge or opposition, the Assignors will, on any reasonable request by the Assignee, immediately provide that evidence, information or advice to the Assignee.

7. Representations and warranties

7.1 Each of the Assignors represents, warrants and agrees that:

- (a) any person who, either alone or with others, has created, developed or invented Business Intellectual Property, and all employees of each of the Assignors as a matter of course, have entered into a written agreement with the relevant Assignor which obliges them to disclose and to assign such Business Intellectual Property to that Assignor;
- (b) to the best of its knowledge at the Effective Date, use by the Assignee of the Business Intellectual Property has not and will not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party;
- (c) it has taken reasonable steps to maintain and protect the confidentiality of its Know-How;
- (d) the rights it is required to assign under this Deed are assigned to the Assignee free from any Third Party Interest or other encumbrance; and
- (e) it will not, directly or indirectly, do anything which would or might invalidate or put in dispute the Assignee's title to the rights assigned under this Deed; or support any application to limit, remove, revoke, cancel or expunge any applications for, or registration of, Business Intellectual Property.

8. General provisions

Further assurances

- 8.1 As soon as possible after the execution of this Deed, and by no later than 30 days after the Effective Date, the Assignors will, at their own expense:
- (a) do all acts and execute all documents necessary to enable the Assignee to be recorded as the registered owner of the Registered IP at the relevant Intellectual Property Register; and
 - (b) deliver up to the Assignee all certificates, reports, submissions, correspondence and other documents relating to the Registered IP.
- 8.2 The Assignors will pay, in a timely manner, all renewal fees in respect of the Registered IP that are due and owing prior to the date on which the Assignee is recorded as the registered owner of that Registered IP.

- 8.3 Each of the Assignors must, at their own expense, whenever requested by the Assignee, promptly do or to the extent reasonably practicable, arrange for others to do all acts and provide and execute all documents as may reasonably be necessary or desirable to give full effect to this Deed, and secure the vesting in the Assignee of all rights assigned to the Assignee by this Deed.

Counterparts

- 8.4 This Deed may be signed in counterparts and all counterparts taken together constitute one document.

Severability

- 8.5 If any provision of this Deed is held by a court to be unlawful, invalid, unenforceable or in conflict with any rule or law, statute, ordinance or regulation, it is to be severed so that the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions are not affected.

Governing law and jurisdiction

- 8.6 This Deed is governed by the laws in force in the State of Queensland and each party submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that State.
