Article 3. The Plan of Conversion was approved and adopted by the converting entity in accordance with its governing law. The Plan of Conversion is on file at the principal office of the converted entity. Upon request, a copy of the Plan of Conversion will be provided to any interest holder of the converting entity.

Article 4. Special provisions - continued (select only if applicable):

☐ The converting entity is a nonstock corporation, general partnership, limited liability partnership, limited partnership, or limited liability limited partnership organized under Wisconsin law, and at least one partner or member did not vote for or consent to the transaction. If this box is checked, refer to sections 178.1161, 179.1161, or 181.1180 of the Wisconsin Statutes, as applicable, and select one of the two statements below:

☐ The transaction will materially increase the current or potential obligations of the non-consenting partner or member with respect to any entity in the conversion or treat the non-consenting partner or member's interests in a manner different from interests of the same class held by any other partner or member.

☐ The transaction will not materially increase the current or potential obligations of the non-consenting partner or member with respect to any entity in the conversion, nor treat the non-consenting partner or member's interests in a manner different from interests of the same class held by any other partner or member.

Required attachments: You must attach the organizational documents of the converted entity, if any. As used herein, the term "organizational documents" refers an entity's articles of incorporation, articles of organization, statements of qualification, certificates of limited partnership, and similar documents that create and govern the entity and must be filed as public records under applicable law.

Optional attachments: The converting entity may—but is not required to—include additional provisions relating to the conversion in these articles. Attach any optional provisions on additional pages as needed.

EXECUTION: These articles of conversion must be signed by the converting entity identified in Article 1 above.

Article 1. Identify the entity that is converting to another type of entity. Provide the name, entity type, and governing law (either a U.S. state or a foreign country) of the converting entity as it exists immediately prior to the conversion.

Article 2. Identify the entity that will continue in existence following the conversion of the converting entity. Provide the name, entity type, and governing law (either a U.S. state or a foreign country) of the converted entity.

Article 3. Wisconsin law requires the converting entity to affirm that the plan of conversion was approved and adopted in accordance with the converting entity's governing law, that the plan is on file at the principal office of the converted entity, and that the plan will be provided upon request to any interest holder of the converting entity. Note: the converting entity is not required to file the plan of conversion with the Department.

Article 4 (IF APPLICABLE). If the conversion includes a nonstock corporation, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or limited liability limited partnership, and at least one partner or member of the corporation or partnership did not vote for or consent to the conversion, you must check the first box, then check one of the two statements below it to indicate whether the transaction will materially increase the current or potential obligations of the non-consenting partner or member with respect to any entity in the conversion or treat the non-consenting partner or member's interests in a manner different from interests of the same class held by any other partner or member. Consult section 178.1161, 179.1161, or 181.1180 of the Wisconsin Statutes, as applicable, for more information on this requirement.

If those circumstances do not apply, leave this article blank.

Optional additional provisions. The converting entity may—but is not required to—include additional provisions relating to the conversion in these articles. Attach any optional additional provisions on additional pages as needed.
