2) Assignor and Assignee shall hold the Patent as tenants in common, each owning an undivided fifty percent (50%) interest;

3) Both parties acknowledge and agree that no license, sublicense, or other grant of rights to third parties relating to the Patent shall be made without the mutual written consent of both Assignor and Assignee;

4) Any attempted license, sublicense, or grant of rights executed without the written consent of both Parties shall be null and void;

5) Neither party shall assign or transfer their respective ownership interest in the Patent without first offering the other party a right of first refusal to purchase the interest under the same terms offered to a third party except to the heirs of a party after the death of that party;

6) The Parties must agree on how to practice the invention claimed in the Patent;

7) Assignor represents and warrants that Assignor is the sole and lawful owner of the Patent, free and clear of any liens, encumbrances, or claims; and Assignor has full authority to execute this Agreement and assign the rights described herein;

8) Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Ohio;

9). Execution and Recordation: This Agreement shall be executed by the Parties and, if applicable, recorded with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) to reflect the change in ownership.
