Intellectual Property Purchase and Assignment Agreement

- 1. Assignment Clause: Corey Alexander Mather and Mark William Gust (“Assignor”), owners of U.S. Patents 6,853,531 and 6,418,004, the underlying U.S. Patent applications, and any related U.S patent applications/patents (“the Intellectual Property”) hereby convey, transfer, and assign all substantial rights, title, and interests in all inventions, improvements, and obvious variants thereof, disclosed, described, and/or claimed in the Intellectual Property to Bayshore Patents LLC of 14420 Edinburgh Moor Dr., Wimauma, FL 33598 (“Assignee”) for good and valuable consideration.
- 2. Assignee’s Right to Sue for, Recover, and Retain Damages for Past Infringement: Assignor hereby conveys, transfers, grants, and assigns to Assignee the exclusive right to sue any party for infringement committed before this patent assignment and the exclusive right to recover and retain damages for any infringement of the Intellectual Property committed before this assignment.
- 3. Assignor’s Back-end: Assignee agrees to pay to Assignor 50% of any gross proceeds obtained from any parties from monetization efforts, including licensing and litigation, relating to the Intellectual Property.
- 4. Assignor’s Reversionary Interest: Assignee agrees to convey, transfer, and assign all substantial rights, title, and interests in all inventions, improvements, and obvious variants thereof disclosed, described, and/or claimed in the Intellectual Property to Assignor, including the right to sue parties for past infringement, upon Assignee’s inability or unwillingness to pursue or continue previously undertaken litigation or similar monetization efforts relating to the Intellectual Property.
