FORT HOWARD CORPORATION

into

FORT JAMES OPERATING COMPANY

This Plan and Agreement of Merger was approved as of December 15, 1997 by both the boards of directors and the sole shareholders of each of Fort Howard Corporation, a Delaware corporation, and Fort James Operating Company, a Virginia corporation. The merger of these two corporations is permitted by the laws of the jurisdiction of domicile of each of the constituent corporations, and has been adopted, approved, certified, executed, and acknowledged by each of the constituent corporations in accordance with the laws under which it is formed. The provisions of the merger are:

- 1 The participating corporations are Fort Howard Corporation ("Terminating Corporation") and Fort James Operating Company ("Surviving Corporation"). Pursuant to the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the Virginia Stock Corporation Act, Terminating Corporation shall be merged with and into Surviving Corporation which shall continue to exist under its present name. The separate existence of Terminating Corporation shall cease upon the effective time of the merger.
- 2 The articles of incorporation and bylaws of Surviving Corporation in effect at the time of the merger shall be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Surviving Corporation.
- 3 Each issued share of Terminating Corporation shall be cancelled upon the effective time of the merger and shall cease to be outstanding. The issued shares of the Surviving Corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger shall not be converted in any manner, and each share issued as of the effective time of the merger shall continue to represent one issued share of Surviving Corporation.
- 4 The officers and directors of Surviving Corporation as of the effective time of the merger shall continue to be the officers and directors of Surviving Corporation, all of whom shall hold their offices until the election and qualification of their respective successors.
- 5 In the merger, Surviving Corporation shall succeed to the assets, liabilities, rights, and obligations of Terminating Corporation by operation of law.
- 6 In the event that the merger of Terminating Corporation into Surviving Corporation shall have been fully authorized in accordance with the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and in accordance with the provisions of the Virginia Stock Corporation Act, Terminating Corporation and Surviving Corporation stipulate that they will cause to be executed and filed and/or recorded any document prescribed by the State of Delaware and the Commonwealth of Virginia, and that they will cause to be performed all necessary acts to effectuate the merger.
- 7 The directors and the officers of each of Surviving Corporation and Terminating Corporation are authorized and directed to take all such action and to execute and deliver any document which shall be necessary to carry out this Plan and Agreement of Merger.

8. Surviving Corporation may be served with process in the State of Delaware in any proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of Terminating Corporation as well as for enforcement of any obligation of Surviving Corporation arising from the merger, including any suit or other proceeding to enforce the right of any stockholder as determined in appraisal proceedings pursuant to the provisions of Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, and it irrevocably appoints the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware as its agent to accept service of process in any such suit or other proceeding.
