In re: Reg. No. 1701731 for the mark INTERSCOPE RECORDS

Receipt is acknowledged of the Affidavit submitted under the provisions of Sections 8 & 15 of the Trademark Statute. Acceptance is withheld in view of the following:

The records of the Assignment Branch of the Patent and Trademark Office show title to the registration to be vested in Frederick W. Field, an individual rather than Interscope Records, a corporation. The present claimant must establish ownership of the registration as of a date at least as early as July 20, 1998, the date of execution of the declaration. Ownership may be established by: (1) recording appropriate documents in the Assignment Branch, or (2) submitting proof of the transfer of title to the present claimant. In either case, a complete chain of title must be established from the registrant of record to the present claimant. Trademark Rule 3.73; TMEP §1603.05(a).

If the present claimant chooses to establish ownership through recordation in the Assignment Branch, the claimant must notify the undersigned when the document or documents have been filed for recording. The filing of a document in the Assignment Branch does not stay the six-month period for responding to this action.

If the present claimant chooses to establish ownership by submitting proof of the transfer of title, the claimant must submit evidence of such transfer. Appropriate evidence may consist of a copy of the document transferring ownership from one party to another or an explanation, supported by an affidavit or a declaration under Trademark Rule 2.20, that a valid transfer of legal title has occurred. TMEP §502.

However, pursuant to Trademark Rule 3.85, the office records will continue to reflect the original registrant or the last recorded assignee as recorded in the Assignment Branch. The acceptance notice will not issue in the name of the new owner until and unless the transfer is recorded in the Assignment Branch. TMEP §§502.01 and 1603.05(c). Accordingly, please advise the undersigned as to whether you plan to record the change so that the acceptance notice will issue in the name of the current owner.

In the absence of a proper response filed within six months of the mailing date of this letter, a cancellation order will be issued in due course.
