SCHEDULE A

1. The preference shares shall have the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached thereto:
 - (1) The holders of the preference shares shall in each year at the discretion of the directors, but always in preference and priority to any payment of dividends for such year on the common shares and any shares ranking junior to the 10% preference shares, be entitled out of any or all profits or surplus available for dividends, to non-cumulative dividends at the rate of $10.00 per annum on the 10% preference shares. If in any year, after providing for the full dividends on the preference shares, there shall remain any profits or surplus available for dividends, such profits or surplus, or any part thereof, may, in the discretion of the directors, be applied to dividends on the common shares. The holders of preference shares shall not be entitled to any dividend other than, or in excess of, the non-cumulative dividends at the rate of $10.00 per annum on the 10% preference shares hereinbefore provided for.
 - (2) The preference shares shall rank, both as regards dividend and return of capital, in priority to all other shares of the Company, but shall not confer any further right to participate in profits or assets.
 - (3) Subject to the provisions of the New Brunswick Business Corporations Act, the Company may, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, redeem the whole or any part of the preference shares, on payment for each share to be redeemed of the amount paid up thereon, together with all dividends declared thereon and unpaid; in case a part only of the then outstanding preference shares is at any time to be redeemed, the shares so to be redeemed shall be selected by lot in such manner as the directors in their discretion shall decide or, if the directors so determine, may be redeemed pro rata, disregarding fractions, and the directors may make such adjustments as may be necessary to avoid the redemption of fractional parts of shares; not less than 30 days' notice in writing of such redemption shall be given by mailing such notice to the registered holders of the shares to be redeemed, specifying the date and place or places of redemption; if notice of any such redemption be given by the Company in the manner aforesaid and an amount sufficient to redeem the shares be deposited with any trust company or chartered bank in Canada as specified in the notice on or before the date fixed for redemption, the holders of the preference shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends after the date so fixed for redemption and they shall thereafter have no rights against the Company in respect thereof except upon the surrender of certificates for such shares, to receive payment therefor out of the moneys so deposited; after the redemption price of such shares has been deposited with any trust company or chartered bank in Canada, as aforesaid, notice shall be given to the holders of any preference shares called for redemption who failed to present the certificates representing such shares within 2 months of the date specified for redemption that the money has been so deposited and may be obtained by the holders of the said preference shares upon presentation of the certificates representing such shares called for redemption at the said trust company or chartered bank.

- (4) Subject to the provisions of the New Brunswick Business Corporations Act, the Company shall have the right at its option at any time and from time to time to purchase for cancellation the whole or any part of the preference shares by contract or pursuant to tenders received by the Company upon request for tenders addressed to all holders of the class of preference shares to be purchased for cancellation or with the unanimous consent of all the holders of all issued preference shares of the said class at the lowest price at which, in the opinion of directors, such shares are obtainable but not exceeding the amount paid thereon, together with all dividends declared thereon and unpaid. If, in response to an invitation for tenders, 2 or more shareholders submit tenders at the same price and if such tenders are accepted by the Company in whole or in part, then, unless the Company accepts all such tenders in whole, the Company shall accept such tenders in proportion as nearly as may be to the number of shares offered in each such tender.
- (5) In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the preference shares shall be entitled to receive, before any distribution of any part of the assets of the Company among the holders of any other shares, an amount equal to 100 per cent of the amount paid thereon and any dividends declared thereon and unpaid and no more.
- (6) Except as required by the New Brunswick Business Corporations Act, the holders of the preference shares shall not, as such, have any voting rights for the election of directors or for any other purposes, nor shall they be entitled to attend shareholders' meeting unless and until the Company shall fail, for a period of 2 consecutive years, to pay the dividend at the prescribed rate on the preference shares, whereupon and whenever the same shall occur, the holders of the preference shares shall, until dividends aggregating $10.00 per annum on the 10% preference shares have been paid on the said preference shares for 1 full year, be entitled to attend all shareholders' meetings and shall have 1 vote thereat for each preference share then held by them respectively.
- (7) The Company may not add, change or remove any right, privilege, condition or restriction attached to the preference shares without such approval, if any, as may then be required by the New Brunswick Business Corporations Act to be given by the holders of the preference shares and by any other shareholders.

(2) See Schedule C hereto.

(3) The Common Shares shall have attached to them:

- (a) the right to vote at any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation;
- (b) subject to the rights attached to the Preferred Shares, the right to receive any dividend declared by the Corporation; and
- (c) subject to the rights attached to the Preferred Shares, the right to receive the remaining property of the Corporation on dissolution.
