Ms. Nancy M. Stiles, P.C.

1100 New York Avenue, N.S.
Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Ms. Stiles:

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) has received your letter concerning the title change and appropriate amendment to the bank's articles of association. The OCC has recorded that as of November 15, 2001, the title of The Mid-City National Bank of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, OCC Charter Number 13684, was changed to "MB Financial Bank, National Association."

As a result of the Garn-St. Germain Depository Institutions Act of 1982, the OCC is no longer responsible for the approval of national bank name changes nor does it maintain official records on the use of alternate titles. The use of other titles or the retention of the rights to any previously used title is the responsibility of the bank's board of directors. Legal counsel should be consulted to determine whether or not the new title, or any previously used title, could be challenged by competing institutions under the provisions of federal or state law.

Please contact the undersigned or National Bank Examiner David J. Rogers at (312) 360-8867 with any related questions.

Sincerely,

Carolina M. Ledesma
