To the extent the Seller Party, at any time following the Closing Date, determines, in its discretion, that the Buyer's efforts to collect the Existing Receivables (i) do not constitute reasonable commercial efforts or (ii) are not acceptable to the Seller Party, the Seller Party shall have the right, upon thirty (30) days prior notice to the Buyer, to terminate the Buyer's role as collection agent for the Existing Receivables and to act as or to engage a third party to act as collection agent for such receivables. Neither the Company nor the Seller Party shall, without the Buyer's prior written consent, disclose any such Confidential Information to any third person or entity (other than their respective representatives, attorneys, accountants and agents) except as required by law or a valid judicial order or other lawful order of a governmental authority.

Section 7.2 Injunctive Relief. Each of the Company and the Seller Party agrees that the Buyer would be irreparably damaged by reason of any violation of this Article 7, and that any remedy at law for breach of such provisions would be inadequate. Therefore, the Buyer shall be entitled to seek and obtain injunctive or other equitable relief (including, but not limited to, a temporary restraining order, a temporary injunction or a permanent injunction) against the applicable offending Party, for breach or threatened breach of such provisions and without the necessity of proving actual monetary loss. It is expressly understood by the Company and the Seller Party that this injunctive or other equitable relief shall not be the Buyer's exclusive remedy for any breach of this covenant and the Buyer shall be entitled to seek any other relief or remedy that may be available by contract, statute, law or otherwise for any breach hereof. It is agreed that the Buyer shall also be entitled to recover any and all attorneys' fees and expenses in any successful action or suit against the undersigned relating to any such breach.

(a) No Insolvency Proceedings. No bankruptcy, receivership or other insolvency-related proceeding shall have been commenced by or against the Company or with respect to any of the Transferred Assets.

(b) No Adverse Proceeding. No custom or practice of the Parties at variance with any provision of this Agreement shall affect or constitute a waiver of, a Party's right to demand strict compliance with the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 9.4 Genders and Numbers. Where permitted by the context, each pronoun used in this Agreement includes the same pronoun in other genders and numbers, and each noun used in this Agreement includes the same noun in other numbers.

Section 9.5 References: Headings. Any reference to an article, section, exhibit or schedule shall be to an article or section of, or exhibit or schedule to, this Agreement unless otherwise expressly provided. The headings of the various articles and sections of this Agreement are not part of the context of this Agreement, are merely labels to assist in locating such articles and sections, and shall be ignored in construing this Agreement.

Section 9.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement by telecopy shall be effective as an original and shall constitute a representation that an executed original shall be delivered.

Section 9.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including all exhibits, schedules, and other documents referred to in this Agreement (the "Incorporated Documents", all of which are hereby incorporated by reference) constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. All obligations of a Party under any document related to this Agreement shall constitute an obligation of such Party under this Agreement, and any capitalized terms used in any such related document which are not otherwise defined therein shall have the respective meanings given such terms in this Agreement.

Section 9.8 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing contained in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give to any person, firm, corporation or legal entity, other than the Parties, any rights, remedies or other benefits under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 9.9 Litigation. If any legal action is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement, or because of an alleged dispute, breach, default, or misrepresentation in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees, paralegal fees and other costs incurred in that action or proceeding, in addition to any other relief to which it or they may be entitled. Any such legal action shall be brought in courts of competent jurisdiction in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Section 9.10 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to principles of conflicts of law.

Section 9.11 Successors: Assignment. This Agreement is for the benefit of and binding upon the parties hereto, their respective successors and, where applicable, assigns. No Party may assign this Agreement or any of its rights, interests or obligations hereunder without the prior approval of the other Party; provided, however, that the Buyer shall be entitled to assign its right to purchase the Transferred Assets, in whole or in part, to an Affiliate of the Buyer.

Section 9.12 Remedies. All rights and remedies of each Party under this Agreement shall be cumulative and in addition to all other rights and remedies which may be available to that Party from time to time, whether under any other agreement, at law, or in equity.

Section 9.13 Equitable Remedies. The Seller Party and the Company acknowledge and agree that the Buyer will not have an adequate remedy at law in the event of any breach by the Seller Party or the Company of this Agreement and that, therefore, the Buyer shall be entitled, in addition to any other remedies which may be available to it, to injunctive and/or other equitable relief to prevent or remedy a breach, with the posting of any bond in connection therewith being hereby waived.

Section 9.14 Expenses. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, each Party shall bear its respective legal, accounting, and other costs and expenses associated with the Secured Party Sale (including without limitation the costs of any brokers and financial advisors).

Section 9.15 Severability. With respect to any provision of this Agreement finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such court shall have jurisdiction to reform such provision so that it is enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and the Parties shall abide by such court's determination. In the event that any provision of this Agreement cannot be reformed, such provision shall be deemed to be severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 9.16 Further Assurances. Each Party shall, in good faith, execute and deliver additional documents and take such additional actions, in either case which may be reasonably requested by another Party, whether before or after the Closing, to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

Section 9.17 Time of the Essence. Time shall be of the essence in this Agreement, and if any Party shall fail to perform any of its undertakings within the time stipulated for such performance, the other Parties may elect, without prejudice to their other remedies, if any, to terminate this Agreement.

Section 9.18 Construction. The parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. Any reference to any federal, state, local or foreign statute or law shall be deemed also to refer to all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, unless the context requires otherwise.

Section 9.19 Several Obligations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the obligations of the Seller Party under this Agreement are several (and not joint and several) and each Seller Party is responsible only for the breaches of representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of such Seller Party (and not those of any other Seller Party) set forth therein, provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to modify the terms and conditions of the Credit Agreement.
