The preferences, limitations and relative rights of the Preferred Stock, the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall be as follows:

DIVISION A
THE PREFERRED STOCK

1. The shares of Preferred Stock, $1.00 par value, may be divided into and issued in series. Each such series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes, and all shares of the Preferred Stock shall be identical, except as to the following relative rights and preferences, as to which there may be variations between different series:

- a. cumulative or noncumulative dividends;
- b. the rate of dividend;

- h. voting rights, including the number of votes per share, or any fraction thereof, the matters on which such shares can vote and the contingencies which make such voting rights effective.

2. The Board of Directors of the Corporation is hereby authorized, from time to time, by resolution or resolutions providing for the issuance thereof, to divide the shares of Preferred Stock into and to establish series of Preferred Stock, to designate each such series, to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established, and to issue and sell any and all of the authorized and unissued shares of Preferred Stock as shares of any series thereof established by action of the Board of Directors pursuant hereto.

3. Voting Powers.

- a. Except as provided by law, as set forth herein or as may be provided with respect to any series by the Board of Directors pursuant to the authority granted hereinabove in Section 2 hereof, the holders of Preferred Stock shall not have any right to vote for any purpose or on any matter whatsoever, all such voting power being vested exclusively in the shares of Class A Common Stock of the Corporation. Holders of Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive notice of any meeting of shareholders of the Corporation at which they are not entitled to vote.
- b. The holders of shares of any and all series of Preferred Stock outstanding on the record date for any such meeting of the shareholders shall be entitled to vote, as a single class, upon any proposed amendment to these Articles of Incorporation, if such amendment would (i) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of Preferred Stock, (ii) increase or decrease the par value of shares of Preferred Stock, (iii) effect an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of all or a part of the shares of Preferred Stock, (iv) effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of another class into shares of Preferred Stock, (v) change the designations, preferences, limitations or relative rights of any series of Preferred Stock at any time outstanding in those respects in which the shares thereof vary from shares of other series of Preferred Stock at the time outstanding, (vi) change the shares of Preferred Stock, whether with or without par value, into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of the same class or another class or classes; (vii) create a new class of shares of stock having rights and preferences equal, prior or superior to the shares of the Preferred Stock, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights and preferences equal, prior or superior to the shares of the Preferred Stock, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights or preferences later or inferior to the shares of the Preferred Stock in such a manner as to become equal, prior or superior to the shares of the Preferred Stock or (viii) cancel or otherwise affect accumulated but undeclared dividends on the shares of Preferred Stock, and no such proposed amendment shall be deemed to have been adopted and approved without the affirmative vote of holders of that number of shares of Preferred Stock then outstanding which shall be required pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act in effect at the time of such vote.

- c. The holders of shares of any series of Preferred Stock outstanding on the record date fixed for any such meeting of the shareholders shall be entitled to vote, as a single class, upon any resolution authorizing (i) any plan of merger or plan of consolidation involving the Corporation, (ii) the dissolution of the Corporation, and (iii) the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation, if not made in the regular course of business, and no such resolution shall be deemed to have been adopted and approved without the affirmative vote of holders of that number of shares of Preferred Stock then outstanding which shall be required pursuant to that provision of the Texas Business Corporation Act in effect at the time of such vote.

4. The following provisions shall apply to all shares of the Preferred Stock irrespective of series:

- a. To the extent that dividends are declared with respect to the Preferred Stock, the holders of Preferred Stock of each such series shall be entitled to receive on the dates and for the periods hereafter specified by the Board of Directors, dividends in cash or property, payable when, if and as declared by the Board of Directors out of any funds legally available therefor, at such rates as shall be determined by the Board of Directors for the respective series, from the date upon which such shares have been originally issued with respect to any cumulative series of Preferred Stock or from such date specified by the Board of Directors with respect to any noncumulative series of Preferred Stock.

- b. In the event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, the holders of Preferred Stock of each series then outstanding, shall be entitled to receive in cash out of the assets of the Corporation, whether capital or surplus or otherwise, before any distribution of the assets shall be made to the holders of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock or of any other class of stock ranking junior to the Preferred Stock as to dividends or assets, the amount determined by the Board of Directors, pursuant to the authority granted hereinabove in Section 2 hereof with respect to the Preferred Stock to be payable on the shares or such series in the event of voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up, as the case may be, and with respect to any cumulative series of Preferred Stock, together with unpaid accumulated dividends, if any, whether such dividends are earned, declared or otherwise, to the date fixed for such payment, and, with respect to any noncumulative series of Preferred Stock, together with declared but unpaid dividends, if any, to the date fixed for such payment. If the assets shall not be sufficient to pay in full the amounts so determined to be payable on all shares of the Preferred Stock in the event of such voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up, as the case may be, then the assets available for payment shall be distributed ratably among the holders of the Preferred Stock of all series in accordance with the amounts so determined to be payable on the shares of each series in the event of voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up, as the case may be, in proportion to the full preferential amounts, together with any and all dividend arrearages, to which they are respectively entitled. After payment to the holders of the Preferred Stock of the full preferential amounts hereinbefore provided for, the holders of Preferred Stock will have no other rights or claims to any of the remaining assets of the corporation either upon distribution of such assets or upon dissolution, liquidation or winding up. The sale of all or substantially all the property of the Corporation to, or the merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Corporation into or with, any other corporation, or the purchase or redemption by the Corporation of any shares of its Preferred Stock, or its Class A or Class B Common Stock or any other class of its stock shall not be deemed to be a distribution of assets or a dissolution, liquidation or winding up for the purposes of this paragraph.

- c. Upon any issue for money or other consideration of any stock of the Corporation that may be authorized from time to time, or treasury stock, no holder of Preferred Stock shall have any preemptive or other right to subscribe for, purchase, or receive any proportionate or other shares of the stock so issued, but the Board of Directors may dispose of all or any portion of such stock as and when it may determine, free of any such rights, whether by offering the same to shareholders or by sale or other disposition as said Board of Directors may deem advisable.

DIVISION B PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO
CLASS A COMMON STOCK AND CLASS B COMMON STOCK

The following provisions shall apply to all shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock:

1. Dividends. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 4(a) of Division A hereinabove and after making such provisions, if any, as may be required for any mandatory sinking fund applicable to any series of Preferred Stock, dividends may be paid upon the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock to the exclusion of the Preferred Stock out of any funds of the Corporation legally available therefor.

2. Distribution of Assets. In the event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, after there shall have been paid or set aside in cash for the holders of Preferred Stock the full preferential amounts, together with any and all dividend arrearages, to which they are entitled pursuant to the provisions of Division A hereinabove, the holders of the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall then be entitled to receive pro rata all of the remaining assets of the Corporation available for distribution to shareholders of the Corporation.

3. Preemptive Rights. No shareholder of the Corporation shall, by reason of his holding shares, have any preemptive or preferential right to purchase or subscribe to any unissued or treasury shares of any class of the Corporation now or hereafter to be authorized, to any rights or options to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire any then unissued or treasury shares of any class of the Corporation, or to any notes, bonds or debentures of the Corporation; and the Board of Directors may issue any such shares, rights, options, notes, bonds or debentures without offering any of the same to the existing shareholders of the Corporation.

DIVISION C
CLASS A COMMON STOCK

Voting Powers. The holders of the Class A Common Stock shall have exclusive voting rights, except as provided hereinabove in Section 3 of Division A hereof or pursuant to Division D hereof, for all purposes and on all matters, and each holder of the Class A Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share held on every matter submitted to a vote at any meeting of shareholders of the Corporation; provided, however, that such holder was an owner of record on the record date established for any such meeting.

DIVISION D
CLASS B COMMON STOCK

1. Voting Powers.

- a. Except as provided by law, or as set forth herein, the holders of Class B Common Stock shall not have any right to vote for any purpose or on any matter whatsoever, all such voting power being vested exclusively in the shares of Class A Common Stock of the Corporation. Holders of Class B Common Stock shall not be entitled to receive notice of any meeting of shareholders of the Corporation at which they are not entitled to vote.

- b. The holders of shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding on the record date for any such meeting of the shareholders shall be entitled to vote, as a single class, upon any proposed amendment to these Articles of Incorporation, if such amendment would (i) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of Class B Common Stock, (ii) increase or decrease the par value of shares of Class B Common Stock, (iii) effect an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of all or part of the shares of Class B Common Stock, (iv) effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of another class into shares of Class B Common Stock, (v) change the designations, preferences, limitations or relative rights of Class B Common Stock at any time outstanding in those respects in which the shares thereof vary from shares of other classes of Common Stock at the time outstanding, (vi) change the shares of Class B Common Stock, whether with or without par value, into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of the same class or another class or classes or (vii) create a new class of shares of stock having rights and preferences equal, prior or superior to the shares of Class B Common Stock, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights and preferences equal, prior or superior to the shares of Class B Common Stock, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights or preferences later or inferior to the shares of Class B Common Stock in such a manner as to become equal, prior or superior to the shares of Class B Common Stock, and no such proposed amendment shall be deemed to have been adopted and approved without the affirmative vote of holders of that number of shares of Class B Common Stock then outstanding which shall be required pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act in effect at the time of such vote.

- c. The holders of shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding on the record date fixed for any such meeting of the shareholders shall be entitled to vote, as a single class, upon any resolution authorizing (i) any plan of merger or plan of consolidation involving the Corporation, (ii) the dissolution of the Corporation, and (iii) the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation, if not made in the regular course of business, and no such resolution shall be deemed to have been adopted and approved without the affirmative vote of holders of that number of shares of Class B Common Stock then outstanding which shall be required pursuant to that provision of the Texas Business Corporation Act in effect at the time of such vote.

2. Conversion Rights.

- a. Any holder of shares of Class B Common Stock may at any time convert any or all of such shares into an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock of the Corporation. Such right shall be exercised by the giving of written notice by such holder to the Corporation setting forth his election to convert and by the surrender of the stock certificate or certificates representing the shares of Class B Common Stock to be converted and the delivery to the Corporation, at its stock transfer office or agency in Dallas, Texas or at any place or places where the Corporation shall maintain a transfer agency, of such other instruments of conversion and/or transfer, in form satisfactory to the Corporation, duly executed by such holder or his duly authorized attorney. As promptly as practicable after compliance by a holder of shares of Class B Common Stock with the procedures of conversion described in this Section 2, the Corporation will deliver to such holder one or more certificates representing the number of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, issued in such name or names as such holder may have directed. A conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date on which the holder complies with all of the requirements for conversion herein. All rights of any such holder arising from ownership of shares of Class B Common Stock shall cease upon such conversion. The person or persons in whose name or names the certificate or certificates representing shares of Class A Common Stock are to be issued shall be treated for all purposes as having become the record holder or holders of such shares of Class A Common Stock at such time and shall then have and then may exercise all the rights and powers appertaining thereto. All shares of Class A Common Stock which may be issued upon conversion as described herein will, upon issuance, be fully paid and nonassessable. Any share of Class B Common Stock that has been converted into a share of Class A Common Stock shall be retired and cancelled and may not be reissued.

VII.

Cumulative voting by the shareholders of the Corporation at any election for directors of the Corporation is hereby prohibited. Every shareholder entitled to vote at each such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by such shareholder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election such shareholder has a right to vote.

VIII.

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for an act or omission in such director's capacity as a director of the Corporation.

Any repeal or amendment of this Article by the shareholders of the Corporation shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which a director of the Corporation is not personally liable as set forth in the foregoing provisions of this Article, a director shall not be liable to the fullest extent permitted by any amendment to the Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act or the Texas Business Corporation Act hereafter enacted that further limits the liability of a director.

IX.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, nothing herein shall in any way be deemed to restrict the circumstances under which the Corporation is required or permitted to indemnify and advance expenses to a person under applicable law. Without limiting the foregoing, the Corporation shall indemnify any and all persons who may serve or who may have served at any time as directors or officers of the Corporation or who, at the request of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, may serve or at any time have served as directors and officers of another corporation in which the Corporation at such time owned or may own shares of stock or of which it was or may be a creditor, and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, against any and all expenses, including amounts paid upon judgments, counsel fees and amounts paid in settlement (before or after suit is commenced), actually and necessarily incurred by such persons in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, in which they are, or any of them, are made parties, or a party, or which may be asserted against them or any of them, by reason of being or having been directors or officers or a director or officer of the Corporation, or of such other corporation, except to the extent forbidden by applicable law. The Corporation shall, in all cases, indemnify and advance expenses to all eligible persons under applicable law to the fullest extent permitted by such law. Indemnification and advancement of expenses of advances shall be mandatory to the extent that applicable law provides that the Corporation may authorize such indemnification and advancement of expenses. Such indemnification and advancement of expenses shall be in addition to any other rights to which those seeking indemnification and advancement of expenses may be entitled under any law, bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or otherwise.

The Corporation may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, at any time without further shareholder approval, purchase insurance or enter into any other arrangement for the benefit of a person eligible under applicable law to receive such benefit, insuring such person against any liability asserted against such person incurred in connection with or arising out of such person's relationship with the Corporation whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under applicable law, including, but not limited to (i) creating a trust fund, (ii) establishing any form of self-insurance, (iii) securing its indemnity obligations by granting a security interest or other lien on the assets of the Corporation, or (iv) establishing a letter of credit, guaranty or surety arrangement.

Any repeal or amendment of this Article by the shareholders of the Corporation or by changes in applicable law shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any right of any person to indemnification and advancement of expenses existing at the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the foregoing, the right of directors and officers to indemnification and advancement of expenses shall be to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act, the Texas Business Corporation Act or any other applicable law and all amendments to such laws as hereafter enacted from time to time.

X.

Any action which would otherwise be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holder or holders of shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which the holders of all shares entitled to vote on the action were present and voted.

XI.

Except to the extent such power may be modified or divested by action of shareholders representing a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of the Corporation, the power to alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

XII.

The corporation shall not commence business until it has received for the issuance of its shares consideration of the value of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), consisting of money, labor done or property actually received.

ARTICLE I.

OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office and Place of Business. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at Suite 470-LB9, 7502 Greenville Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75231 and the name of the registered agent at such address is Lee Roy Mitchell. The Corporation may have, in addition to its registered office, offices and places of business at such places, both within and without the State of Texas as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE II.

MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meeting. All meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be held at such times and at such place within or without the State of Texas as shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. An annual meeting of the shareholders commencing with the year 1988 shall be held each year at the time and date during the month of June to be selected by the Board of Directors. If the day is a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be on the next business day following. At the meeting they shall elect a Board of Directors, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 3. Voting List. At least ten days before each meeting of the shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at said meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, with the residence of each and the number of voting shares held by each, shall be prepared by the officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books. Such list, for a period of ten days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to the inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such list shall be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting during the whole thereof, and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder who may be present. The original stock transfer books shall be prima-facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at said meeting.

Section 4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Board of Directors or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meetings. Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting.

Section 5. Notice of Meetings. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary or the officer or person calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

Section 6. Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall be requisite to and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the shareholders for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws. If a quorum is not present or represented at any meeting of the shareholders, the shareholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

Section 7. Majority Vote; Withdrawal of Quorum. When a quorum is present at any meeting, the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares having voting power, present in person or represented by proxy, shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one on which, by express provision of the statutes, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question. The shareholders present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum.

Section 8. Method of Voting. Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the shareholders, except to the extent that the voting rights of the shares of any class or classes are limited or denied by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation or by any other certificate creating any class or series of stock. At any meeting of the shareholders, every shareholder having the right to vote shall be entitled to vote in person, or by proxy appointed by an instrument in writing subscribed by such shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Each proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable and unless otherwise made irrevocable by law. Each proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation prior to or at the time of the meeting. Any vote may be taken by voice or by show of hands unless someone entitled to vote objects, in which case written ballots shall be used.

Section 9. Record Date; Closing Transfer Books. The Board of Directors may fix in advance a record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of the shareholders, the record date to be not less than ten nor more than fifty days prior to the meeting; or the Board of Directors may close the stock transfer books for such purpose for a period of not less than ten nor more than fifty days prior to such meeting. In the absence of any action by the Board of Directors, the date upon which the notice of the meeting is mailed shall be the record date.

Section 10. Action Without Meeting. Any action required by statute to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof and such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders. Any such signed consent, or a signed copy thereof, shall be placed in the minute book of the Corporation.

Section 11. Telephone Meeting. Subject to the provisions of applicable law and these Bylaws, shareholders may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this section shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE III.

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Management of the Corporation. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, who may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not, by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, directed or required to be exercised or done by the shareholders.

Section 2. Number and Qualifications. The Board of Directors shall consist of two (2) members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of the State of Texas. The directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the shareholders, except as hereinafter provided, and each director elected shall hold office until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify.

Section 3. Change in Number. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to these Bylaws; provided that at all times the number of directors shall be at least one and no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose.

Section 4. Removal. Any director may be removed either for or without cause at any special meeting of shareholders by the affirmative vote of a majority in number of the shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote for the election of such director, if notice of the intention to act upon such matter shall have been given in the notice calling such meeting.

Section 5. Vacancies. If any vacancies occur in the Board of Directors by the death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office of any director, or otherwise than as a result of an increase in the number of directors, a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, may choose a successor or successors, or a successor or successors may be chosen at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at the annual meeting of the shareholders or at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose.

Section 6. Election of Directors. Directors shall be elected by plurality vote. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.

Section 7. Place of Meetings. The directors of the Corporation may hold their meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 8. Annual Meetings. The first meeting of each newly elected Board shall be held without further notice immediately following the annual meeting of the shareholders and at the same place, unless by majority vote of the directors then elected and serving such time or place is changed.

Section 9. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place as may be fixed from time to time by resolutions adopted by the Board and communicated to all directors. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular meeting need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 10. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board or the President on twenty-four (24) hours' notice to each director either personally or by mail or by telegram. Special meetings shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two directors. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by statute, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 11. Quorum; Majority Vote. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, the presence of a majority of the directors fixed by these Bylaws shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present. At any such adjourned meeting any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

Section 12. Compensation. The Board of Directors shall have authority to determine from time to time the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of standing or special committees of the Board. The Board shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the Corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the Board from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any directors from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 13. Procedure. The Board of Directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings. The minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the Corporation.

Section 14. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all the members of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting, and may be stated as such in any document or instrument filed with the Secretary of State. The signed consent, or a signed copy, shall be placed in the minute book of the Corporation.

Section 15. Telephone Meeting. Subject to the provisions of applicable statutes and these Bylaws, members of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may participate in and hold a meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this section shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE IV.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Designation. The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of directors fixed by these Bylaws, designate an Executive Committee, to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation (with such alternatives, if any, as may be deemed desirable), one of whom shall be the President of the Corporation.

Section 2. Authority. The Executive Committee, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, except where action of the full Board of Directors is required by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation.

Section 3. Change in Number. The number of members of the Executive Committee may be increased or decreased from time to time by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board of Directors.

Section 4. Removal. Any member of the Executive Committee may be removed by the Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board, whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation will be served thereby.

Section 5. Vacancies. Any vacancy in the Executive Committee may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board.

Section 6. Meetings. Time, place and notice, if any, of meetings of the Executive Committee shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

Section 7. Quorum; Majority Vote. At meetings of the Executive Committee, a majority of the number of members designated by the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Executive Committee, except as otherwise specifically provided by statute, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the Executive Committee, the members present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 8. Compensation. See Article III, Section 12.

Section 9. Procedure. The Executive Committee shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required. The minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee shall be placed in the minute book of the Corporation. The Secretary of the Corporation, or, in his absence, an Assistant Secretary, shall act as the secretary of the Executive Committee, or the committee may, in its discretion, appoint its own secretary.

Section 10. Action Without Meeting. See Article III, Section 14.

Section 11. Telephone Meeting. See Article III, Section 15.

ARTICLE V.

OTHER COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

Section 1. Other Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board, designate two or more directors (with such alternates, if any, as may be deemed desirable) to constitute another committee or committees for any purpose; provided, that any such other committee or committees shall have and may exercise only the power of recommending action to the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee and of carrying out and implementing any instructions or any policies, plans and programs therefore approved, authorized and adopted by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VI.

NOTICE

Section 1. Manner of Giving Notice. Whenever under the provisions of the statutes, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, notice is required to be given to any committee member, director or shareholder, and no provisions are made as to how such notice shall be given, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but any such notice may be given in writing, by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such committee member, director or shareholder at the address appearing on the books of the Corporation. Any notice required or permitted to be given by mail shall be deemed given at the time when the same is thus deposited in the United States mails as aforesaid.

Section 2. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any committee member, director or shareholder of the Corporation under the provisions of the statutes, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated in such notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a person attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE VII.

OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS:

POWERS AND DUTIES

Section 1. Elected Officers. The elected officers of the Corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board, a President, an Executive Vice President, one or more Vice Presidents as may be determined from time to time by the Board (and, in the case of each such Vice President, with such descriptive title, if any, as the Board of Directors shall deem appropriate), a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Chairman of the Board shall be a member of the Board of Directors; no other elected officer of the Corporation need be a director of the Corporation, and no elected officer of the Corporation need be a shareholder or resident of the State of Texas.

Section 2. Appointive Officers. The Board of Directors may also appoint one or more Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers and such other officers and assistant officers and agents (none of whom need be a member of the Board, a shareholder or resident of the State of Texas) as it shall from time to time deem necessary, who shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be set forth in these Bylaws or determined from time to time by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Two or More Offices. Any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person.

Section 4. Compensation. The compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee. The Board of Directors or the Executive Committee may from time to time delegate to the President the authority to fix the compensation of any or all of the other officers (except the Chairman of the Board) of the Corporation.

Section 5. Term of Office; Removal; Filling of Vacancies. Unless otherwise specified by the Board at the time of election or in an employment contract approved by the Board, each elected officer's term shall end at the first meeting of directors after the next annual meeting of shareholders. Each elected officer of the Corporation shall hold office until his successor is chosen and qualified in his stead or until his earlier death, resignation or removal from office. Each appointive officer or agent shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors without the necessity of periodic reappointment. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed at any time by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. If the office of any officer becomes vacant for any reason, the vacancy may be filled by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall preside when present at all meetings of the shareholders and the Board of Directors. He shall advise and counsel the President and other officers of the Corporation and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be assigned to or required of him from time to time by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee.

Section 7. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and, subject to the provisions of these Bylaws, shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Corporation and shall have general and active control of all its business.
