Common Questions and Answers About Moving

- ❶ What should I do if I am not yet receiving mail at my new address?
 - ❶ If it is more than ten days after the start date of your move and no mail has arrived, call 1-800-ASK-USPS (1-800-275-8777).
- ❷ How should I let my friends, family members, magazine publishers, and business correspondents know of my new address?
 - ❶ Usually, magazines and business correspondence contain cards or instructions to inform them of your new address and the date you will be moving. In addition, your local post office can supply you, free of charge, with postcards that you can use as a convenient way to notify anyone of your new address and the date of your move.
- ❸ What about mail addressed to individuals who are no longer with our company?
 - ❶ A Change-of-Address Order may not be filed with the USPS for an individual's mail addressed to an organization either during or after termination of employment. However, the organization may change the address (but not the name) on all or selected mail in order to redirect it to such individuals. (Please mark through all barcodes on redirected mail.)

As required by law, the Postal Service does not provide customer names or addresses to third parties.
